Worksheet Questions

1. What is an absolute monarch? An absolute monarch is a king or queen who will rule with power without restrictions or limitations.
2. What characteristics define absolute monarchs? Absolute monarchs claim that every aspect of society, especially the church, should be controlled by the monarch and that the monarch should be the representative of God.
3. Why was the King of France powerful? The King of France, Louis XIV, made Louis XIV's administration central to the French state, affecting all religious, political, and economic life in France. He centralized power in his hands, making him the absolute monarch. The king signed all laws, and his decisions were final. He was the only one who could declare war and peace, and he controlled all foreign policy. He was the only one who could appoint and dismiss judges, and he was the only one who could grant pardons.
4. What was the role of the Cardinal? The Cardinal was the highest-ranking member of the Catholic Church in France. He was responsible for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the French people. He was the only one who could grant pardons, and he was the only one who could declare war and peace.
5. Finally, what happened next? The end of France.
6. What is absolutism? Absolutism is the idea that the monarch is the only one who can rule with power without restrictions or limitations.
7. What was the French Revolution? The French Revolution was a period of radical change in France. It was a time when the people of France rose up against the absolute monarchy and the Catholic Church. They demanded a new form of government, one in which the people would have a say in the way the country was run.
