Accumulating Insecurity Accumulating Insecurity:

Accumulating Insecurity Shelley Feldman, Charles C. Geisler, Gayatri A. Menon, 2011 Accumulating Insecurity examines the relationship between two vitally important contemporary phenomena a fixation on security that justifies global military engagements and the militarization of civilian life and the dramatic increase in day to day insecurity associated with contemporary crises in health care housing incarceration personal debt and unemployment Contributors to the volume explore how violence is used to maintain conditions for accumulating capital Across world regions violence is manifested in the increasingly strained often terrifying circumstances in which people struggle to socially reproduce themselves Security is often sought through armaments and containment which can lead to the impoverishment rather than the nourishment of laboring bodies Under increasingly precarious conditions governments oversee the movements of people rather than scrutinize and regulate the highly volatile movements of capital They often do so through practices that condone dispossession in the name of economic and political security Political and Military Sociology Nevi M.

Karakatsanis, Jonathan Swarts, 2013-01-23 Several contributions in this volume focus on the modern Middle East with other articles examining justifications for war the return of war veterans white nationalists and the activities of the Moral Majority Maria Markantonatou addresses the blurring of distinctions between civilians and combatants Udi Lebel investigates how the IDF is being changed by the increasing number of religious Zionists recruited Orlee Hauser argues that the experiences of women in the IDF vary depending on their positions and assignments Bruce McDonald compares the performance of the Feder Ram and augmented Solow models in accounting for economic growth in Iran Neema Noori examines the interrelationship of war the state and mobilization in Iran Molly Clever examines the justifications for war employed by both state and non state actors Christina Knopf uses relational dialectics to examine US veteran transitions David Bugg and Dianne Dentice analyze attitudes and perceptions of white nationalists Finally Aaron Davis considers the rise of the Illinois state chapter of the Moral Majority in the 1980s This volume in the Political and Military Sociology series also includes reviews of important new books in civil military relations political science and military sociology Risking Capitalism

Susanne Soederberg, 2016-10-28 This volume examines diverse meanings and practices of risk management ranging from austerity to climate change to housing and debt The authors investigate the relationship between shifts in contemporary capitalism and the ways in which neoliberal forms of risk management have emerged been reproduced and normalized and transformed historically Trying to Make It Rajeev V. Gundur, 2022-08-15 Trying to Make It is R V Gundur s journey from the US Mexico border to America s heartland from America s prisons to its streets in search of the true story of the drug trade and the people who participate in it The book begins in the Paso del Norte area encompassing the sister cities of Ciudad Ju rez and El Paso which has been in the public eye as calls for securing the border persist From there it moves on to Phoenix which was infamously associated with the drug trade through a series of kidnappings Finally the book goes on to

Chicago which has been a lightning rod of criticism for its gangs and violence Gundur highlights the similarities and differences that exist in the American drug trade within the three sites and how they relate to current drug trade narratives in the US At each stop the reader is transported to the city's historical and contemporary contexts of the drug trade and introduced to the individuals who have lived them Drug retailers street and prison gang members wholesalers and the law enforcement personnel who try to stop them offer readers a comprehensive look at how various illicit enterprises work together to supply the drugs that American users demand Most importantly through a combination of macro and microlevel vantage points and comparative analysis of three key sites in illicit drug operations the stories in Trying to Make It remind us that the people involved in the drug trade for the most part do not deserve vilification Far from being a seemingly uniform widespread threat or an unlimited array of bogeymen and women they are ordinary people living ordinary lives just trying to make it

A Material Culture Ethnography of Home-Making in Asylum Reception Friedemann Yi-Neumann, 2025-05-10 This book explores what it takes to create a sense of home while in exile drawing on ethnographic research conducted in German asylum reception facilities from 2016-2020 From a material culture perspective it examines how asylum seekers and migrants with precarious legal status translate aspects of home into challenging environments Through these translations processual shifts of objects habits and ideas across borders migrants work to reassemble a sense of belonging The book delves into the material social and individual efforts involved in this homing process while highlighting the ongoing impact of dispossession and loss By focusing on personal attachments to objects and the broader context of migration this work offers a unique perspective on forced migration home cultures and the quest for ontological security The book will be of interest to scholars researchers and students in disciplines such as anthropology sociology and human geography as well as other research interested in ethnographic perspectives on the respective topics

Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies Mark Shucksmith, David L. Brown, 2016-05-20 Rural societies around the world are changing in fundamental ways both at their own initiative and in response to external forces The Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies examines the organisation and transformation of rural society in more developed regions of the world taking an interdisciplinary and problem focused approach Written by leading social scientists from many countries it addresses emerging issues and challenges in innovative and provocative ways to inform future policy This volume is organised around eight emerging social economic and environmental challenges Demographic change Economic transformations Food systems and land Environment and resources Changing configurations of gender and rural society Social and economic equality Social dynamics and institutional capacity Power and governance Cross cutting these challenges are the growing interdependence of rural and urban the rise in inequality within and between places the impact of fiscal crisis on rural societies neoliberalism power and agency and rural areas as potential sites of resistance The Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies is required reading for anyone concerned with the future of rural areas and Asset Building in Vulnerable Households Margaret S. Sherraden, Julie Birkenmaier, J. Michael Collins, 2018 Financial Capability and Asset Building in Vulnerable Households is the first book of its kind It prepares students and practitioners for financial practice This comprehensive text offers knowledge and skills to enable families to improve their financial circumstances and to promote policies and services for household economic security and development Fitzgerald William Bunge, 2022-09-06 This on the ground study of one square mile in Detroit was written in collaboration with neighborhood residents many of whom were involved with the famous Detroit Geographical Expedition and Institute Fitzgerald at its core is dedicated to understanding global phenomena through the intensive study of a small local place Beginning with an 1816 encounter between the Ojibwa population and the neighborhood's first surveyor William Bunge examines the racialized imposition of local landscapes over the course of European American settlement Historical events are firmly situated in space a task Bunge accomplishes through liberal use of maps and frequent references to recognizable twentieth century landmarks More than a work of historical geography Fitzgerald is a political intervention By 1967 the neighborhood was mostly African American Black Power was ascendant and Detroit would experience a major riot Immersed in the daily life of the area Bunge encouraged residents to tell their stories and to think about local politics in spatial terms His desire to undertake a different sort of geography led him to create a work that was nothing like a typical work of social science The jumble of text maps and images makes it a particularly urgent book a major theoretical contribution to urban geography that is also a startling evocation of street level Detroit during a turbulent era A Sarah Mills Hodge Fund Publication The Gentrification Plot Thomas Heise, 2021-12-21 For decades crime novelists have set their stories in New York City a place long famed for decay danger and intrigue What happens when the mean streets of the city are no longer quite so mean In the wake of an unprecedented drop in crime in the 1990s and the real estate development boom in the early 2000s a new suspect is on the scene gentrification Thomas Heise identifies and investigates the emerging gentrification plot in contemporary crime fiction He considers recent novels that depict the sweeping transformations of five iconic neighborhoods the Lower East Side Chinatown Red Hook Harlem and Bedford Stuyvesant that have been central to African American Latinx immigrant and blue collar life in the city Heise reads works by Richard Price Henry Chang Gabriel Cohen Reggie Nadelson Ivy Pochoda Grace Edwards Ernesto Qui onez Wil Medearis and Brian Platzer tracking their representations of broken windows policing cultural erasure racial conflict class grievance and displacement Placing their novels in conversation with oral histories urban planning and policing theory he explores crime fiction's contradictory and ambivalent portrayals of the postindustrial city's dizzying metamorphoses while underscoring the material conditions of the genre A timely and powerful book The Gentrification Plot reveals how today's crime writers narrate the death or murder of a place and a way of life The Politics of Post-9/11 Music: Sound, Trauma, and the Music Industry in the Time of Terror Brian Flota, 2016-02-24 Seeking to extend discussions of 9/11 music beyond the acts typically associated with the September

11th attacks U2 Toby Keith The Dixie Chicks Bruce Springsteen this collection interrogates the politics of a variety of post 9 11 music scenes Contributors add an aural dimension to what has been a visual conceptualization of this important moment in US history by articulating the role that lesser known contemporary musicians have played or have refused to play in constructing a politics of protest in direct response to the trauma inflicted that day Encouraging new conceptualizations of what constitutes political music The Politics of Post 9 11 Music covers topics as diverse as the rise of Internet music distribution Christian punk rock rap music in the Obama era and nostalgia for 1960s political activism
