Directory of Corporate Counsel, 2024 Edition , Campus Economics Sandy Baum,Michael McPherson,2023-02-14

An invaluable primer on the role economic reasoning plays in campus debate and decision making Campus Economics provides college and university administrators trustees and faculty with an essential understanding of how college finances actually work Sandy Baum and Michael McPherson explain the concepts needed to analyze the pros the cons and the trade offs of difficult decisions and offer a common language for discussing the many challenges confronting institutions of higher learning today from COVID 19 to funding cuts and declining enrollments Emphasizing the unique characteristics of the academic enterprise and the primacy of the institutional mission Baum and McPherson use economic concepts such as opportunity cost and decisions at the margin to facilitate conversations about how best to ensure an institution s ongoing success The problems facing higher education are more urgent than ever before but the underlying issues are the same in good times and bad Baum and McPherson give nontechnical user friendly guidance for navigating all kinds of economic conditions and draw on real world examples of campus issues to illustrate both institutional constraints and untapped opportunities Campus Economics helps faculty administrators trustees and government policymakers engage in constructive dialogue that can lead to decisions that align finite resources with the pursuit of the institutional mission Haunted Halls

Elizabeth Tucker,2009-10-20 Why do so many American college students tell stories about encounters with ghosts In Haunted Halls the first book length interpretive study of college ghostlore Elizabeth Tucker takes the reader back to school to get acquainted with a wide range of college spirits Some of the best known ghosts that she discusses are Emory University s Dooley who can disband classes by shooting professors with his water pistol Mansfield University s Sara who threw herself down a flight of stairs after being rejected by her boyfriend and Huntingdon College s Red Lady who slit her wrists while dressed in a red robe Gettysburg College students have collided with ghosts of soldiers while students at St Mary of the Woods College have reported frightening glimpses of the Faceless Nun Tucker presents campus ghostlore from the mid 1960s to 2006 with special attention to stories told by twenty first century students through e mail and instant messages Her approach combines social psychological and cultural analysis with close attention to students own explanations of the significance of spectral phenomena As metaphors of disorder insanity and school spirit college ghosts convey multiple meanings Their colorful stories warn students about the dangers of overindulgence as well as the pitfalls of potentially horrifying relationships Besides offering insight into students initiation into campus life college ghost stories make important statements about injustices suffered by Native Americans African Americans and others Directory of Corporate Counsel,
