The Cross in Contexts Raheb, Mitri, Henderson, Suzanne Watts, 2017-04-20 Why did Jesus die And in what ways did his crucifixion offer redemption to the world Those questions which lie at the heart of Christian faith remain a pressing concern for theological reflection What sets this work apart is that the authors a Palestinian theologian from Bethlehem and a New Testament scholar from the United States explore the meaning of the cross in light of both first and twenty first century Palestinian contexts Together their insights coalesce around themes that expose the divine power of the cross both for Jesus first followers and for contemporary readers alike

In the Wake of the Poetic Najat Rahman, 2015-09-28 Heralding a new period of creativity In the Wake of the Poetic explores the aesthetics and politics of Palestinian cultural expression in the last two decades As it increasingly gains a significant presence on the international scene much of Palestinian art owes a debt to Mahmoud Darwish one of the finest contemporary poets and to Palestinian writers of his generation Rahman maps the immense influence of Darwish s poetry on a new generation of performance artists visual artists spoken word poets and musicians Through an examination of selected works by key artists such as Suheir Hammad Ghassan Zaqtan Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum Sharif Waked and others Rahman articulates an aesthetic founded on loss dispersion dispossession and transformation It interrupts dominant regimes constituting acts of dissension and intervention It reinscribes belonging and is oriented toward solidarity and future This innovative wave of experimentation transforms our understanding of the national through the diasporic and the transnational and offers a profound meditation on identity Why Did You Leave the Horse Alone? Mahmoud Darwish, Mohammad Shaheen, 2014-11-01 A stunning new translation of Mahmoud Darwish's intertwining poetic narrative presenting a profound portrait of the Palestinian people, the human condition and Darwish's own hopes and dreams. Since Mahmoud Darwish's death, his poetic writings continue to be read by an audience in awe. This is a collection of autobiographical poetry designed to give an insight into the wider human condition. Darwish explores the meaning of life, identity and the impact of exile. Hailed as the most important Arab poet of the modern day, Darwish's voice has come to represent a generation and the Palestinian people in the midst of the tense political situation in the Middle East. While Darwish explored themes of lost Eden, exile and life after death, he resisted classification as a spokesperson for the Palestinian cause and refused to use his art for purely political ends. Darwish's was a nomadic existence, much of it spent in international exile, and these experiences lent his writing a cosmopolitan edge; they partake of a worldwide mythology.

Beyond Sambation A.M. Klein, 1982-12-15 The broad range of A.M. Klein's interests, ideas and activities is reflected in this selection of articles, editorials and reviews, a selection that also displays the qualities that distinguished all his creative writing and the highly idiosyncratic nature of his style. The writings in this volume span a most critical juncture in human affairs, a period that witnessed the Great Depression, the rise of fascism, Nazism and communism, the Second World War and the emergence of the State of Israel. As a journalist, Klein did more than record the events; he gave expression to the feelings of his people and helped shape their responses. His wide reading sensitivity and intelligence made him a perceptive observer and keen analyst, while his command of language, his passion, rhetoric and wit made him an eloquent spokesman. These qualities enabled him to carry out the responsibilities as he saw them of chronicler and champion. Though Klein's major concern was with the Canadian Jewish scene, his interests were part of the mosaic of Canadian history and his work forms a chronicle and a commentary on events of world-wide significance. Klein's journalism relates frequently in both substance and language to his poems and fiction and thus provides a context for the study of his creative writing. It also reveals aspects of his personality, values and commitments contributing to our understanding and appreciation of one of Canada's foremost writers.

Life Didier Fassin, 2018-06-22 How can we think of life in its dual expression, matter and experience, the living and the lived? Philosophers and more recently social scientists have offered multiple answers to this question, often privileging one expression or the other, the biological or the biographical. But is it possible to conceive of them together and thus reconcile naturalist and humanist approaches? Using research conducted on three continents and engaging in critical dialogue with Wittgenstein, Benjamin and Foucault, Didier Fassin attempts to do so by developing three concepts: forms of life, ethics of life and politics of life. In the conditions of refugees and asylum seekers, in the light of mortality statistics and death benefits and via a genealogical and ethnographical inquiry, the moral economy of life reveals troubling tensions in the way contemporary societies treat human beings. Once the pieces of this anthropological composition are assembled like in Georges Perec's jigsaw puzzle, an image appears that of unequal lives.

Lost Beyond Telling Richard Howard Stamelman,1990 In seeking to give voice to absent things or lost experiences Richard Stamelman says modern poetry attempts to give absence a shape Loss in his view is both the cause and the subject of the modern poem Fittingly in Lost beyond Telling he formulates and develops what he calls a poetics of loss with which he frames his treatment of modern French poetry
