blockbusters of the Hollywood studios to emerging voices from Saudi Arabia Pakistan and Laos we learn of women making films in traditionally male dominated areas such as action fantasy and horror There are contributions from countries with film industries in every state from nascent to mature and this book demonstrates how economic and technological change is creating new opportunities for women film directors everywhere BEST BOOK ON WOMEN DIRECTORS DUE TO ITS GLOBAL OVERVIEW Diane Amazon Gabrielle Kelly and Cheryl Robson have crafted a watershed work CELLULOID CEILING is essential reading for anyone who wants to know how women directors are helping reshape filmmaking D A Morris Amazon This book is an essential resource for anyone tracking the inspiring work being done by women film directors from around the world UCF Film The level of public consciousness about the barriers faced by female filmmakers is higher than it has ever been Despite this the discussion more often than not centres around North America and to a lesser extent Europe Australia and New Zealand and I am guilty as charged This is perfectly understandable but clearly women do make films outside of these countries and it can be illuminating to consider how their experiences reflect or differ from those with which we are more familiar To this end the arrival of a new book The Celluloid Ceiling could not be more timely Edited by Gabrielle Kelly and Cheryl Robson it takes a purposefully global overview of the status quo and in doing so provides some fascinating stories and insights reminding us of what is lost when we limit the discussion to Anglophone directors Matthew Hammett Knott indiewire

African Masculinities L. Ouzgane,R. Morrell,2005-03-15 While masculinity studies enjoys considerable growth in the West there is very little analysis of African masculinities This volume explores what it means for an African to be masculine and how male identity is shaped by cultural forces The editors believe that to tackle the important questions in Africa the many forms of violence wars genocides familial violence and crime and the AIDS pandemic it is necessary to understand how a combination of a colonial past patriarchal cultural structures and a variety of religious and knowledge systems creates masculine identities and sexualities The work done in the book particularly bears in mind how vulnerability and marginalization produce complex forms of male identity The book is interdisciplinary and is the first in depth and comprehensive study of African men as a gendered category
