Beyond All Reason The Radical Assault On Truth In American Law:

Beyond All Reason Daniel A. Farber, Suzanna Sherry, 1997-10-30 Would you want to be operated on by a surgeon trained at a medical school that did not evaluate its students Would you want to fly in a plane designed by people convinced that the laws of physics are socially constructed Would you want to be tried by a legal system indifferent to the distinction between fact and fiction These questions may seem absurd but these are theories being seriously advanced by radical multiculturalists that force us to ask them These scholars assert that such concepts as truth and merit are inextricably racist and sexist that reason and objectivity are merely sophisticated masks for ideological bias and that reality itself is nothing more than a socially constructed mechanism for preserving the power of the ruling elite In Beyond All Reason liberal legal scholars Daniel A Farber and Suzanna Sherry mount the first systematic critique of radical multiculturalism as a form of legal scholarship Beginning with an incisive overview of the origins and basic tenets of radical multiculturalism the authors critically examine the work of Derrick Bell Catherine MacKinnon Patricia Williams and Richard Delgado and explore the alarming implications of their theories Farber and Sherry push these theories to their logical conclusions and show that radical multiculturalism is destructive of the very goals it wishes to affirm If for example the concept of advancement based on merit is fraudulent as the multiculturalists claim the disproportionate success of Jews and Asians in our culture becomes difficult to explain without opening the door to age old anti Semitic and racist stereotypes If historical and scientific truths are entirely relative social constructs then Holocaust denial becomes merely a matter of perspective and Creationism has as much validity as evolution The authors go on to show that rather than promoting more dialogue the radical multiculturalist preferences for legal storytelling and identity politics over reasoned argument produces an insular set of positions that resist open debate Indeed radical multiculturalists cannot critically examine each others ideas without incurring vehement accusations of racism and sexism much less engage in fruitful discussion with a mainstream that does not share their assumptions Here again Farber and Sherry show that the end result of such thinking is not freedom but a kind of totalitarianism where dissent cannot be tolerated and only the naked will to power remains to settle differences Sharply written and brilliantly argued this book is itself a model of the kind of clarity civility and dispassionate critical thinking which the authors seek to preserve from the attacks of the radical multiculturalists With far reaching implications for such issues as government control of hate speech and pornography affirmative action legal reform and the fate of all minorities Beyond All Reason is a provocative contribution to one of the most important controversies of our time

Authorial Ethics Robert Hauptman, 2011-02-22 Authorial Ethics is a normative study that deals with the many ways in which writers abuse their commitment to truth and integrity It is divided by academic discipline and includes chapters on journalism history literature art psychology and science among others Robert Hauptman offers generalizations and theoretical remarks exemplified by specific cases Two major abrogations are inadvertent error and purposeful misconduct which is subdivided into falsification fabrication and plagiarism All of these problems appear in most disciplines although their negative impact is felt most potently in biomedical research and publication Professor Mary Lefkowitz the classicist provides an incisive foreword

Post-Liberalism Melvyn L. Fein, 2017-09-08 Liberalism is dying despite its superficial appearance of vigor Most of its adherents still believe it is the wave of the future but they are clinging to a sinking dream So says Melvyn L Fein who argues that liberalism has made countless promises almost none of which have come true Under its auspices poverty was not eliminated crime did not diminish the family was not strengthened education was not improved nor was universal peace established These failures were not accidental they flow directly from liberal contradictions In Post Liberalism Fein demonstrates why this is the case Fein contends that an inverse force rule dictates that small communities are united by strong forces such as personal relationships and face to face hierarchies while large scale societies are integrated by weak forces such as technology and social roles As we become a more complex techno commercial society the weak forces become more dominant This necessitates greater decentralization in direct opposition to the centralization that liberals celebrate Paradoxically this suggests that liberalism as an ideology is regressive rather than progressive If so it must fail Liberals assume that some day under their tutelage these trends will be reversed but this contradicts human nature and history's lessons According to Fein we as a species are incapable of eliminating hierarchy or of loving all other humans with equal intensity Neither as per Emile Durkheim are we able to live in harmony without appropriate forms of social cohesion

Race in the Jury Box Hiroshi Fukurai, Richard Krooth, 2012-02-01 Race in the Jury Box focuses on the racially unrepresentative jury as one of the remaining barriers to racial equality and a recurring source of controversy in American life Because members of minority groups remain underrepresented on juries various communities have tried race conscious jury selection termed affirmative jury selection The authors argue that affirmative jury selection can insure fairness verdict legitimization and public confidence in the justice system This book offers a critical analysis and systematic examination of possible applications of race based jury selection examining the public perception of these measures and their constitutionality The authors make use of court cases their own experiences as jury consultants and jury research as well as statistical surveys and analysis The work concludes with the presentation of four strategies for affirmative jury selection

Schools for Misrule
Walter Olson, 2011-03 From Barack Obama Harvard and Chicago to Bill and Hillary Clinton Yale many of our current national leaders emerged from the rarefied air of the nation's top law schools The ideas taught there in one generation often shape national policy in the next The trouble is Walter Olson reveals in Schools for Misrule our elite law schools keep churning out ideas that are catastrophically bad for America From class action lawsuits that promote the right to sue anyone over anything to court orders mandating the mass release of prison inmates from the movement for slavery reparations to court takeovers of school funding all of these appalling ideas were hatched in legal academia And the worst is yet to come A fast rising movement in law schools demands that sovereignty over U S legal disputes be handed over to international law and transnational courts It is not by coincidence Olson argues that these bad ideas all tend to confer more power on the law schools own graduates In the overlawyered society that results they are the ones who become the real rulers
