McCarthy,1992 Finnegans Wakes Patrick O'Neill,2022-03-01 James Joyce s astonishing final text Finnegans Wake 1939 is universally acknowledged to be entirely untranslatable And yet no fewer than fifteen complete renderings of the 628 page text exist to date in twelve different languages altogether and at least ten further complete renderings have been announced as underway for publication in the early 2020s in nine different languages Finnegans Wakes delineates for the first time in any language the international history of these renderings and discusses the multiple issues faced by translators The book also comments on partial and fragmentary renderings from some thirty languages altogether including such perhaps unexpected languages as Galician Guarani Chinese Korean Turkish and Irish not to mention Latin and Ancient Egyptian Excerpts from individual renderings are analysed in detail together with brief biographical notes on numerous individual translators Chronicling renderings spanning multiple decades Finnegans Wakes illustrates the capacity of Joyce s final text to generate an inexhaustible multiplicity of possible meanings among the ever increasing number of its impossible translations The Literary Digest International Book Review Clifford Smyth,1925 James Joyce James F. Broderick,2018-03-12 Though he published just a handful of major works in his lifetime James Joyce 1882 1941 continues to fascinate readers around the world and remains one of the most important literary figures of the 20th century The complexity of Joyce s style has attracted and occasionally puzzled generations of readers who have succumbed to the richness of his literary world This literary companion guides readers through his four major works Dubliners A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man Ulysses

and Finnegans Wake with chapter by chapter discussions and critical inquiry An A to Z format covers the works people history and context that influenced his writing Appendices summarize notable Joycean literary criticism and biography and also discuss significant films based on his work
