August Wilson The Piano Lesson Script:

African American Performance and Theater History Harry J. Elam, David Krasner, 2001-01-18 African American Performance and Theater History is an anthology of critical writings that explores the intersections of race theater and performance in America Assembled by two esteemed scholars in black theater Harry J Elam Jr and David Krasner and composed of essays from acknowledged authorities in the field this anthology is organized into four sections representative of the ways black theater drama and performance interact and enact continual social cultural and political dialogues Ranging from a discussion of dramatic performances of Uncle Tom s Cabin to the Black Art Movement of the 1960s and early 1970s articles gathered in the first section Social Protest and the Politics of Representation discuss the ways in which African American theater and performance have operated as social weapons and tools of protest The second section of the volume Cultural Traditions Cultural Memory and Performance features among other essays Joseph Roach s chronicle of the slave performances at Congo Square in New Orleans and Henry Louis Gates Jr s critique of August Wilson s cultural polemics Intersections of Race and Gender the third section includes analyses of the intersections of race and gender on the minstrel stage the plight of black female choreographers at the inception of Modern Dance and contemporary representations of black homosexuality by PomoAfro Homo Using theories of performance and performativity articles in the fourth section African American Performativity and the Performance of Race probe into the ways blackness and racial identity have been constructed in and through performance The final section is a round table assessment of the past and present state of African American Theater and Performance Studies by some of the leading senior scholars in the field James V Hatch Sandra L Richards and Margaret B Wilkerson Revealing the dynamic relationship between race and theater this volume illustrates how the social and historical contexts of production critically affect theatrical performances of blackness and their meanings and at the same time how African American cultural social and political struggles have been profoundly affected by theatrical representations and performances This one volume collection is sure to become an important reference for those studying black theater and an engrossing survey for all readers of African American literature August Wilson Patti Hartigan, 2024-08-27 The masterful The Wall Street Journal invaluable Los Angeles Times first authoritative biography of August Wilson the most important and successful American playwriting of the late 20th century by a theater critic who knew him August Wilson wrote a series of ten plays celebrating African American life in the 20th century one play for each decade No other American playwright has completed such an ambitious oeuvre Two of the plays became successful films Fences starring Denzel Washington and Viola Davis and Ma Rainey s Black Bottom starring Viola Davis and Chadwick Boseman Fences and The Piano Lesson won the Pulitzer Prize for Drama Fences won the Tony Award for Best Play and years after Wilson s death in 2005 Jitney earned a Tony Award for Best Revival of a Play Through his brilliant use of vernacular speech Wilson developed unforgettable characters who epitomized the trials and triumphs of the African American experience He said that he didn't research his plays but wrote them from the blood's memory a sense of racial history that he believed African Americans shared Author and theater critic Patti Hartigan traced his ancestry back to slavery and his plays echo with uncanny similarities to the history of his ancestors She interviewed Wilson many times before his death and traces his life from his childhood in Pittsburgh where nine of the plays take place to Broadway She also interviewed scores of friends theater colleagues and family members and conducted extensive research to tell the absorbing richly detailed Chicago Tribune story of a writer who left an indelible imprint on American theater and opened the door for future playwrights of color

Script Analysis for Actors, Directors, and Designers James Thomas, 2013-10-08 Script Analysis for Actors Directors and Designers teaches the skills of script analysis using a formalist approach that examines the written part of a play to gauge how the play should be performed and designed Treatments of both classic and unconventional plays are combined with clear examples end of chapter questions and stimulating summaries that will allow actors directors and designers to immediately incorporate the concepts and processes into their theatre production work Now thoroughly revised the fifth edition contains a new section on postmodernism and postdramatic methods of script analysis along with additional material for designers

Script Analysis for Actors, Directors, and Designers James Michael Thomas, 2009 Script Analysis specifically for Actors Directors and Designers the only book on this subject that covers the growing area of unconventional plays

August Wilson Marilyn Elkins, 2013-10-23 The only African American playwright to win the Pulitzer Prize twice Wilson has yet to receive the critical attention that he merits With 12 original essays this volume provides a thorough introduction to his body of work

Theatre Stephen Archer, Cynthia M. Gendrich, Woodrow B. Hood, 2009-11-15 Theatre Its Art and Craft is an introductory theatre text focusing on theatre practitioners and their processes Using an accessible tone and a focused exploration of how theatre artists work the book covers playwrights directors actors designers of sets costumes props lights sound and new technology as well as the varying roles of scholars critics and dramaturgs Appropriate for beginning theatre majors minors or nonmajors Theatre Its Art and Craft helps students understand how theatre happens who makes it and what they do The sixth edition has been updated with new statistics references and photographs It also features an extensively revised design section which the authors have divided into two parts one focused on the tactile elements of design sets costumes props and the second on the temporal elements lights sound and new technologies

I Ain't Sorry for Nothin' I Done Joan Herrington, 1998 Limelight The most successful African American playwright of his time August Wilson is a dominant presence on Broadway and in regional theaters throughout the country Herrington traces the roots of Wilson's drama back to the visual artists and jazz musicians who inspired award winning plays like Ma Rainey's Come and Gone Fences and The Piano Lesson From careful analysis of evolving playscripts and from interviews with Wilson and theater professionals who have worked closely with him Herrington offers a portrait of the playwright as thinker and craftsman collection provides the first accessible introduction to Law and Humanities Each chapter explores the nature development and possible further trajectory of a disciplinary law and field Each chapter is written by an expert in the respective field and addresses how the two disciplines of law and the other respective field operate This edited work therefore fulfils a real and pressing need to provide an accessible introductory but critical guide to law and humanities as a whole by exploring how each disciplinary law and field has developed contributes to further scrutinizing the content and role of law and how it can contribute and be enriched by being understood within the law and humanities tradition as a whole

August Wilson Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2015-03-10 Award winning African American playwright August Wilson created a cultural chronicle of black America through such works as Ma Rainey's Black Bottom Fences Joe Turner's Come and Gone The Piano Lesson and Two Trains Running The authentic ring of wit anecdote homily and plaint proved that a self educated Pittsburgh ghetto native can grow into a revered conduit for a century of black achievement He forced readers and audiences to examine the despair generated by poverty and racism by exploring African American heritage and experiences over the course of the twentieth century This literary companion provides the reader with a source of basic data and analysis of characters dates events allusions staging strategies and themes from the work of one of America's finest playwrights The text opens with an annotated chronology of Wilson's life and works followed by his family tree Each of the 166 encyclopedic entries that make up the body of the work combines insights from a variety of sources along with generous citations each concludes with a selected bibliography on such relevant subjects as the blues Malcolm X irony roosters and Gothic mode Charts elucidate the genealogies of Wilson's characters the Charles Hedley and Maxson families and account for weaknesses in Wilson's female characters Two appendices complete the generously cross referenced work a timeline of events in Wilson's life and those of his characters and a list of 40 topics for projects composition and oral analysis
