divided into six chapters and accompanies the reader step by step through the various stages involved in building using and evaluating MLIR systems The book concludes with some examples of recent applications that utilise MLIR technologies Some of the techniques described have recently started to appear in commercial search systems while others have the potential to be part of future incarnations The book is intended for graduate students scholars and practitioners with a basic understanding of classical text retrieval methods It offers guidelines and information on all aspects that need to be taken into consideration when building MLIR systems while avoiding too many hands on details that could rapidly become obsolete Thus it bridges the gap between the material covered by most of the classical IR textbooks and the novel requirements related to the acquisition and dissemination of information in whatever language it is stored The Graphic Design Process

Anitra Nottingham,Jeremy Stout,2019-11-14 One of the main challenges students face upon entering design school is little knowledge of the field its terminology and best practices Unsurprisingly most new students have never fully developed a concept or visual idea been in a critique or have been asked to explain their work to others This book demystifies what design school is really like and explains what will be experienced at each stage with particular focus on practical advice on topics like responding to design briefs and developing ideas building up confidence and understanding what is expected Student work is critiqued to show how projects are really assessed Profiles highlight how professional designers themselves address client briefs Tips for real life problems are outlined like getting stuck and dealing with critical feedback Written by experienced instructors this is the perfect guide for those starting their design education Queering Your Craft

Cassandra Snow,2020 Witchcraft has always belonged to the outsiders and outcasts in society yet so much of the practice enforces and adheres to the same hierarchy we are faced with in the world at large a hierarchy that isolates and hurts those living beyond society s binaries and boundaries Until now there has not been a book that specifically addresses the practice of queer magick from an LGBTQ standpoint This book combines queer aesthetic and culture with Pagan and metaphysical spiritual practice in a way that is commonplace in practice but previously not written about and covers the personal the collective the political and how deeply intertwined all three are in a magickal practice for those who are LGBTQ Building Sustainability in East Asia Vincent S. Cheng,Jimmy C. Tong,2017-05-30 Building Sustainability in East Asia Policy Design and People illustrates the holistic approaches and individual strategies to building sustainability that have been implemented in construction projects in Asia Top down and bottom up approaches from formulating policy to constructing individual buildings are effective in terms of the sustainable development of cities and this book covers both illustrated with a range of case study developments
