Clowning as Social Performance in Colombia Barnaby King, 2016-12-01 Contemporary Clowning as Social Performance in Colombia brings to light the emergence of new kinds of clowning in everyday life in Colombia focusing particularly on the pervasive presence of clowns in the urban landscape of Bogotá. In doing so it brings a fresh and updated perspective on what clowning is as well as what it does in the 21st century. Featuring descriptions of more than 24 distinct clown performers Barnaby King provides an engaging and lively account of the performative moment in which clowning transpires analyzing the techniques and processes at work in producing what is commonly named as clowning. In contrast with their North American and European counterparts clowns in Latin America are seen every day in public settings are popular cultural figures and sometimes claim to exercise real political influence. Drawing on five years of co-performative ethnography the book argues that clown artists have thrived by adapting their craft to changing social and economic conditions in some cases by allying themselves with authority and power and in others by generating spaces for creativity and resistance in adverse circumstances. By applying performance theory to clowning in a specific cultural context this is the first work to propose an appropriate scholarly response to the diversity and ingenuity of clowning beyond Europe and North America.

Alleviative Objects David Frohnapfel, 2020-12-07 The global field of contemporary art is shaped by inter-racial conflicts. Alleviative Objects approaches Caribbean art through intersectional entanglements and combines decolonial epistemologies with critical whiteness studies and affect theory in order to rethink Euro and US-centric perspectives on art, race and class. David Frohnapfel shows how progressive racism in the discourse on Haitian art recenters Whiteness by performing benign, innocent and heroic identifications with the artist group Atis Rezistans. While the study turns critically towards Whiteness it also turns away from it and towards the compelling contributions of Haitian curators and artists to the decentralization of contemporary art.
