China's International Relations and Harmonious World Astrid Nordin, 2016-04-28 As scholars and publics look for alternatives to what is understood as a violent Western world order many claim that China can provide such an alternative through the Chinese dream of a harmonious world This book takes this claim seriously and examines its effects by tracing the notion across several contexts the policy documents and speeches that launched harmony as an official term under previous president Hu Jintao the academic literatures that asked what a harmonious world might look like the propaganda and mega events that aimed to illustrate it the online spoofing culture that is used to criticise and avoid harmonization and the incorporation of harmony into current president Xi Jinping's Chinese dream This book finds contemporary Chinese society and international relations saturated with harmony Yet rather than offering an alternative to problems in Western thought it counter intuitively argues that harmony has not taken place is not taking place and will not take place The argument unfolds as a contribution to wider debates on time space and multiplicity in world politics Offering analysis of the important but understudied concept of harmony Nordin provides new and creative insights into wider contemporary issues in Chinese politics society and scholarship The book also suggests a creative and novel methodology for studying foreign policy concepts more broadly drawing on critical thinkers in innovative ways and in a new empirical context It will be of interest to students and scholars of IR Chinese foreign and security policy and IR theory

Reading the Dream Peter Dale Scott, 2024-01-16 In Reading the Dream the poet and scholar Peter Dale Scott has composed a poem in prose for our time This is a work of art emerging from a passionate social vision Scott examines our present state of post secularity through the imagination of the past Using devices such as the rational and nonrational or the yin and the yang Scott focuses not just on the reasoned current of written history but also on myths beliefs and even dreams The author searches for moreness throughout the culture of the past He reawakens the ultimate human quest for transcendence of ourselves to repair a political order in ruins This book seeks to transcend the slow breakdown of our current global political order by returning to its generative cultural roots in enlightenment that is both secular and spiritual enlightenment It sees our emerging global culture as dialectical on interconnected levels the tension between scientific yang analysis and non rational yin hopes and dreams the source of this tension in the bicameral human brain in competing rural and urban ethical values and in the master servant relationship Behind the screen history of chaotic political violence it revives a vision of cultural progress in which the vertical imposition of political order from above is slowly supplanted by the emerging post secular tolerance of cultural diversity including both religion and science from below
