François Ozon Andrew Asibong, 2019-01-04 This is the first full length study of the films of François Ozon director of such diverse films as 8 femmes Swimming Pool 5x2 and Les amants criminels Andrew Asibong's passionate and critical analysis focuses on the extent to which Ozon's seemingly light touch never ceases to engage with the fundamentally weighty issue of existential transformation a transformation that affects both his protagonists and his audiences A central question emerges what is at stake cinematically ethically and politically in Ozon's alternatively utopian and cynical flirtation with the construction and deconstruction of contemporary social relations Revealing Ozon as a highly adept fan of a whole range of thought literature and cinema Asibong places the precocious French auteur in an intellectual yet highly accessible critical framework allowing Ozon's importance for a thoroughly postmodern filmgoing generation to be given the attention it deserves

Five Directors Kate Ince, 2019-01-04 Auteurism the idea that a director of a film is its source of meaning and should retain creative control over the finished product has been one of film studies most important paradigms ever since the French New Wave of the late 1950s and early 1960s and the adoption of the term auteur by Andrew Sarris Through the popular controversial and critically acclaimed films of Olivier Assayas Jacques Audiard the Dardenne brothers Michael Haneke and François Ozon this book looks into how the meaning of auteur has changed over this half century and assesses the current state of Francophone auteur cinema It combines French philosophical and sociological approaches with methodologies from the Anglo American fields of gender studies queer theory and postmodernism This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of film studies European cinema and French and Francophone studies as well as to film enthusiasts
