Marks, 2010-08-13 Tracing the connections both visual and philosophical between new media art and classical Islamic art In both classical Islamic art and contemporary new media art one point can unfold to reveal an entire universe A fourteenth century dome decorated with geometric complexity and a new media work that shapes a dome from programmed beams of light both can inspire feelings of immersion and transcendence In Enfoldment and Infinity Laura Marks traces the strong similarities visual and philosophical between these two kinds of art Her argument is more than metaphorical she shows that the Islamic quality of modern and new media art is a latent deeply enfolded historical inheritance from Islamic art and thought Marks proposes an aesthetics of unfolding and enfolding in which image information and the infinite interact image is an interface to information and information such as computer code or the words of the Qur'an is an interface to the infinite After demonstrating historically how Islamic aesthetics traveled into Western art Marks draws explicit parallels between works of classical Islamic art and new media art describing texts that burst into image lines that multiply to form fractal spaces nonorganic life in carpets and algorithms and other shared concepts and images Islamic philosophy she suggests can offer fruitful ways of understanding contemporary art Symbolism 2019 Natasha Lushetich, 2019-11-18 Special Focus editor Natasha Lushetich Series editors Rüdiger Ahrens Florian Klöcker Klaus Stierstorfer Symbolism is cohesive It gathers heterogeneity over time across fields of human endeavor and systems of communication Non sequiturs paradox and tautology appear dissipative Yet they are highly productive in reticular and fractal ways Suffice it to look at the philosophical tautology of Parmenides's kind which suggests that being is at the practice of the koan which collapses dualistic thinking by way of incompatible propositions such as the Eastern hill keeps running on the water at logical paradoxes in which the operative logic is sabotaged by its own means as in Hempel's paradox at absurdist dramatic texts in which protagonists record empty time in order to mark the emptiness of the time they are recording as in Beckett's Krapp's Last Tape or at paradoxical games like Maciunas's Prepared Table Tennis played with paddles that have huge holes in them. In all of these examples the existence apprehending processes occur via unexpected itineraries in vacant but nevertheless enunciative codes in seemingly futile yet calibrating performances and in a temporality that is the cumulative time's other. They catapult the mind into the realm of the extra linguistic, the para logical and the meta experiential or they transfigure it through a series of reticular iterations. Forty years after Varela et al.'s groundbreaking work on the embodied emotional and environmentally embedded mind that marked a definitive departure from its former strictly rational conception, there is a need to re-examine the territory that lies beyond mind for a different reason: the proliferation of algorithmic logics that rely on the idea of a rational agent, human or algorithmic, making logical self-serving decisions. This special issue explores neither rational nor irrational forms of thinking and making. It sketches a cartography of a rational processes of meaning and knowledge production that operate across numerous sites, practices and disciplines: visual and media art, literature, art history, music, dance, film, intermedia and photography.

Part I: Ahistoricity, Assemblages and Interpretative Reversals focuses on the legacy of the neo avant garde and a modernism. Part II: Destinerrance, Labyrinths and Folds investigates the ways in which the Derridian delays, detours and the Deleuzian folding function as concrete ways of embodied knowledge production. Part III: Immanent Transcendence offers a glimpse into the reticular and iterative structuring of transcendence that does not pre-exist immanence but is its residue.

The Hidden Geometry of Life Karen L. French, 2014-05-13. Encompassing nature, science, art, architecture and spirituality and illustrated with over 700 photographs and line drawings, The Hidden Geometry of Life illuminates the secret underpinnings of existence. In her trademark easy to understand style, mathematician Karen French shows how sacred geometry permeates every level of being, manifesting itself in simple shapes and numbers, music and sounds, light and color, even in the mysteries of creation itself. But these geometrical archetypes are more than the building blocks of reality; they are gateways to profound new levels of awareness.
