Book And Mediamorphosis Kafka Moving Shai Biderman:

Mediamorphosis Shai Biderman, Ido Lewit, 2016-02-26 The idea of a visual manifestation of the work of Franz Kafka was denied by many first and foremost by Kafka himself who famously urged his publisher to avoid an image of an insect on the cover of Metamorphosis. Be that as it may it is unlikely that such a central progenitor of twentieth century art and thought as Kafka can be fully understood without reference to the revolutionary artistic medium of his century cinema. Mediamorphosis compiles articles by some of today's leading forces in the scholarship of Kafka as well as film studies to provide a thorough investigation of the reciprocal relations between Kafka's work and the cinematic medium. The volume approaches the theoretical integration of Kafka and cinema via such issues as the cinematic qualities in Kafka's prose and the possibility of a visual manifestation of the Kafkaesque. Alongside these debates the book investigates the capacity of cinema to incorporate and express the unique qualities of a Kafkaesque world through an analysis of cinematic adaptations of Kafka's prose such as Michael Haneke's The Castle 1997 and Straub Huillet's Class Relations 1984 as well as films that carry a more subtle relation to Kafka's oeuvre such as the cinematic works of David Cronenberg the films of the Coen brothers Chris Marker's film essay Charlie Chaplin's tramp and others. Kafkaesque Cinema Angelos Koutsourakis, 2024-05-31 For all its familiarity as a widely used term the Kafkaesque cinema remains an often baffling concept that is poorly understood by film scholars. Taking a cue from Jorge Luis Borges point that Kafka has modified our conception of past and future artists and Andre Bazin's suggestion that literary concepts and styles can exceed authors and the novels from which they emanate this monograph proposes a comprehensive examination of Kafkaesque Cinema in order to understand it as part of a transnational cinematic tradition rooted in Kafka's critique of modernity which however extends beyond the Bohemian author's work and his historical experiences. Drawing on a range of disciplines in the Humanities including film literary and theatre studies critical theory and history Kafkaesque Cinema will be the first full length study of the subject and will be a useful resource for scholars and students interested in film theory World Cinema World Literature and politics and representation. The Coen Brothers' America M. Keith Booker, 2019-05-24 For more than three decades Joel and Ethan Coen have produced some of the most unique and thought provoking works in modern cinema. In broad comedies such as Raising Arizona violent thrillers like No Country for Old Men and black comedies such as Fargo the filmmakers have offered brilliant takes on a variety of film genres. One of the most distinctive features of their movies is their skewed view of America itself. In The Coen Brothers' America M. Keith Booker discusses feature films produced by the pair since their 1984 debut Blood Simple. The author focuses on how the Coen brothers' films engage with American cultural history and are embedded in specific geographical settings. From New York to Los Angeles from Texas to Minnesota the Coens capture the essence of real locations from unusual angles which often make the films appear as if they are taking place in an alternate reality. In addition many of the brothers' films are steeped in America's cultural past from the deep south of the 1930s in O Brother Where Art Thou to the

Greenwich Village of the 1960s in Inside Llewyn Davis The Coens make particularly effective use of films from Hollywood's Golden Age producing their own updated versions of such genres as film noir The Man Who Wasn't There the Western True Grit and screwball comedy The Hudsucker Proxy not to mention their idiosyncratic depictions of Hollywood itself in Barton Fink and Hail Caesar This book also explores how the Coens draw upon cultural phenomena outside of film including literature music and television Approaching each film within the framework of Ethan and Joel's overall vision The Coen Brothers America provides an entertaining look at the pair's work that will appeal to scholars and fans alike Kafka After Kafka Iris Bruce, Mark H. Gelber, 2019 New essays providing an up to date picture of the engagement of artists philosophers and critics with Kafka's work Animal Narratology Joela Jacobs, 2020-12-15 Animal Narratology interrogates what it means to narrate to speak speak for on behalf of and to voice or represent life beyond the human which is in itself as different as insects bears and dogs are from each other and yet more as individual as a single mouse horse or puma The varied contributions to this interdisciplinary Special Issue highlight assumptions about the human perception of attitude toward and responsibility for the animals that are read and written about thus demonstrating that just as the animal does not exist neither does the human In their zoopoetic focus the analyses are aware that animal narratology ultimately always contains an approximation of an animal perspective in human terms and terminology yet they make clear that what matters is how the animal is approximated and that there is an effort to approach and encounter the non human in the first place Many of the analyses come to the conclusion that literary animals give readers the opportunity to expand their own points of view both on themselves and others by adopting another's perspective to the degree that such an endeavor is possible Ultimately the contributions call for a recognition of the many spaces moments and modes in which human lives are entangled with those of animals one of which is located within the creative bounds of storytelling Weimar in Princeton Stanley Corngold, 2022-02-10 Thomas Mann arrived in Princeton in 1938 in exile from Nazi Germany and fared in his new country as the greatest living man of letters This beautiful new book from literary critic Stanley Corngold tells the little known story of Mann's early years in America and his encounters with a group of highly gifted migrants in Princeton which came to be called the Kahler Circle with Mann at its center The Circle included immensely creative mostly German speaking exiles from Nazism foremost Mann Erich Kahler Hermann Broch and Albert Einstein all of whom during the Circle's nascent years in Princeton were stupendously productive In clear engaging prose Corngold explores the traces the Circle left behind during Mann's stay in Princeton treating literary works and political statements anecdotes contemporary history and the Circle's afterlife Weimar in Princeton portrays a fascinating scene of cultural production at a critical juncture in the 20th century and the experiences of an extraordinary group of writers and thinkers who gathered together to mourn a lost culture and to reckon with the new world in which they had arrived Investigating Franz Kafka's "Der Bau" Andrea Ebarb, 2023-04-27 In 2016 the Israeli Supreme Court ruled that Max Brod's posthumous papers which included a collection of Kafka's manuscripts be transferred to the National Library of Israel in Jerusalem If Kafka's writings may be seen to belong to Jewish national culture and if they may be considered part of Israel's heritage then their analysis within a Jewish framework should be both viable and valuable This volume is dedicated to the research of Franz Kafka's late narrative The Burrow and its autobiographical and theological significance Research is extended to incorporate many fields of study architecture sound studies philosophy cultural studies Jewish studies literary studies to illustrate the dynamics at work within the text which reveal the Jewish aspects implicitly thematicized Examination of the structure created the nature of sound perceived the atmosphere experienced and the acts performed by the protagonist serve as the foundation of this analysis and offer new access to Kafka's work by presenting an interpretive space semantic approach Der Bau is presented as a life concept given the task of constituting identity highlighting the critical link between the literary and biographical Kafka and demonstrating the necessity of understanding the author as a Jewish writer to understand his late narrative For her outstanding research project Andrea Newsom Ebarb was awarded the Forschungsförderpreis der Vereinigung der Freunde der Universität Mainz e V in 2023

Appropriations of Literary Modernism in Media Art Jordis Lau, 2021-12-06 By analyzing appropriations of literary modernism in video experimental film and installation art this study investigates works of media art as agents of cultural memory While research recognizes film and literature as media of memory it often overlooks media art Adaptation studies art history and hermeneutics help understand appropriation in art in terms of a dialog between an artwork a text and their contexts The Russian Formalist notion of estrangement together with new concepts from literary film and media studies offers a new perspective on appropriation that illuminates the sensuous dimension of cultural memory Media artworks make memory palpable they address the collective body memory of their viewers prompting them to reflect on the past and embody new ways of remembering Five contextual close readings analyze artworks by Janis Crystal Lipzin William Kentridge Mark Aerial Waller Pawe Wojtasik and Tom Kalin They appropriate modernist texts by Gertrude Stein Italo Svevo Louis Ferdinand Celine Guillaume Apollinaire Virginia Woolf and Robert Musil This book will be of value to readers interested in cultural memory sensory studies literary modernism adaptation studies and art history
