Altbach, Gail P.

Kelly, Hugh G. Petrie, Lois Weis, 1991-09-27 In recent years textbooks have been widely criticized for low standards lack of imaginativeness and insensitivity to racial and gender issues Increasingly they are cited as another weak link in American public education This book goes beyond the headlines to examine how textbooks are produced how they are selected and what pressures are placed on textbook authors and publishers The book focuses on the relationship of the textbook to the educational system and includes important issues such as the politics of textbook policy the determinants of textbook content the role of textbooks in educational reform and the process of selection at the state level The authors offer current research on textbook policy including perspectives from those directly involved with textbooks from several thoughtful analyses by textbook editors and publishers to the views of California's Superintendent of Public Instruction How to Publish Your

Nonfiction Book Rudy Shur, 2012-07-10 While many writers dream of seeing their books in print most don't succeed simply because they don't know the ropes Written by a publisher with over three decades of experience How to Publish Your Nonfiction Book was designed to maximize your chance of getting your nonfiction work published The book begins by helping you define your book's category audience and marketplace You are then guided in choosing the most appropriate publishing companies for your work crafting a winning proposal and submitting your package in the best way possible Special sections allow you to be a savvy player in the contract game and fill you in on options such as self publishing Most important this book helps you avoid the errors that often prevent writers from reaching their goal Here is a proven system for taking your work from the desk drawer to the bookstore The Book Publishing Industry Albert N. Greco, 2004-11-16 This volume provides an innovative and detailed overview of the book publishing industry including details about the business processes in editorial marketing and production The work explores the complex issues that occur everyday in the publishing in Encouraging Personal Reading, a Responsibility of the College National Association of Book Publishers (N.Y.), 1928 Visiting College
