Budapest Diary: In Search of the Motherbook Susan Rubin Suleiman, 2019-08-10 Can you forget the place you once called home What does it take to make you recapture it In this moving memoir Susan Rubin Suleiman describes her returns to the city of her birth where she speaks the language like a native but with an accent Suleiman left Budapest in 1949 as a young child with her parents fleeing communism thirty five years later she returned with her two sons for a brief vacation and began to remember her childhood Her earliest memories of Nazi persecution in the final year of World War II came back to her in fragments as did memories of her first school years after the war and of the stormy marriage between her father a brilliant Talmudic scholar and her mother a cosmopolitan woman from a more secular Jewish family In 1993 after the fall of communism and the death of her mother Suleiman returned to Budapest for a six month stay She recounts her ongoing quest for personal history interweaving it with the stories of present day Hungarians struggling to make sense of the changes in their individual and collective lives Suleiman s search for documents relating to her childhood the lives of her parents and their families and the Jewish communities of Hungary and Poland takes her on a series of fascinating journeys within and outside Budapest Emerging from this eloquent often suspenseful diary is the portrait of an intellectual who recaptures her past and comes into contact with the vital troubling world of contemporary Eastern Europe Suleiman s vivid descriptions of her encounters with a proud old city and its people in a time of historical change remind us that every life story is at once unique and part of a larger history I recommend this autobiographical narrative because it is grave and beautiful Better still it is shatteringly truthful Elie Wiesel Susan Rubin was a little girl when her parents fled through darkened fields to escape the Communist regime in Hungary in 1949 This is a poignant piece of self revelation sprinkled with some trenchant observations on the way the dead hand of history has weighed down the former Warsaw Pact countries Kirkus A fascinating revealing journal brutally honest Publishers Weekly This pensive forthright journal records Suleiman s efforts to reconnect with a long forgotten homeland Booklist Suleiman lyrically describes her quest and the complex interaction of the Eastern Europe of the past and present Boston Globe A tale of survival adaptation and pure luck whose darker side reveals the linguistic and emotional cost of emigration and exile the feeling of permanent displacement of being nowhere at home Forward This story must speak to all those who have fled and who have ever dreamed of a return Independent Jewish Women s Magazine A thoughtful and sophisticated memoir You don t have to be Hungarian or Jewish to appreciate writing like this Montreal Gazette Budapest diary 1931 László Káldor, 2002 The Holocaust Diaries Leo V. essays in the collection highlight the intercultural contexts that have molded the conventions genres and institutions of Hungarian writing from the nineteenth century to the present They are mapping some of the ways in which a modern literature is produced by encounters with languages cultures and media external to its traditionally conceived boundaries But rather than viewing intercultural exchange as an external force the collection recognizes its enabling importance to the globalizing reception and circulation of Hungarian writing over the continuities and constraints implied by more traditional national narratives Worlds of Hungarian Writing posits intercultural exchange as the very substance of a literary culture Discussions of the politics of appropriation and translation of the impact of migr writers and critics and of the use of world literary models in genre formation complement studies of the fate of western leftist critical theory in post 1989 Hungary of the role of African American models in contemporary Roma culture and of the use of photography in late 20th century prose The volume spans a wide generic range from the achievements of such canonical 19th century critics and poets as J zsef Bajza and J nos Arany to neglected women authors translators such as Theresa Pulszky to modernist writers and critics like Antal Szerb and Gy rgy Luk cs and to the contemporary novelists P ter Esterh zy P ter N das and L szl Krasznahorkai Each essay is an original contribution to comparative literature and to the study of this Central European literature but is intended to be accessible to readers unfamiliar with its traditions

Battle for Budapest Krisztián Ungváry, 2011-08-30 This title is presented with a new foreword by Istvan Deak The battle of Budapest in the bleak winter of 1944 45 was one of the longest and bloodiest city sieges of World War II From the appearance of the first Soviet tanks on the outskirts of the capital to the capture of Buda Castle 102 days elapsed In terms of human trauma it comes second only to Stalingrad comparisons to which were even being made by soldiers both German and Soviet fighting at the time This definitive history covers their experiences and those of the 800 000 non combatants around whom the battle raged

The Exile and Return of Writers from East-Central Europe John Neubauer, Borbála Zsuzsanna Török, 2009-10-28 This is the first comparative study of literature written by writers who fled from East Central Europe during the twentieth century It includes not only interpretations of individual lives and literary works but also studies of the most important literary journals publishers radio programs and other aspects of exile literary cultures The theoretical part of introduction distinguishes between exiles migr s and expatriates while the historical part surveys the pre twentieth century exile traditions and provides an overview of the exilic events between 1919 and 1995 one section is devoted to exile cultures in Paris London and New York as well as in Moscow Madrid Toronto Buenos Aires and other cities The studies focus on the factional divisions within each national exile culture and on the relationship between the various exiled national cultures among each other They also investigate the relation of each exile national culture to the culture of its host country Individual essays are devoted to Witold Gombrowicz Paul Goma Milan Kundera Monica Lovinescu Milo Crnjanski Herta M ller and to the internal exile of Imre Kert sz Special attention is devoted to the new forms of exile that emerged during the ex Yugoslav wars and to the problems of homecoming of exiled texts and writers Aspasia Krassimira Daskalova, 2008-09 Aspasia is an international peer reviewed yearbook that brings out the best scholarship in the field of interdisciplinary women's and gender history focused on and produced in Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe In this region the field of women's and gender history has developed unevenly and has remained only marginally represented in the international canon The Nazis' Last Victims Randolph L. Braham, 2002-05-01 The Nazis Last Victims articulates and historically scrutinizes both the uniqueness and the universality of the Holocaust in Hungary a topic often minimized in general works on the Holocaust The result of the 1994 conference at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum on the fiftieth anniversary of the deportation of Hungarian Jewry this anthology examines the effects on Hungary as the last country to be invaded by the Germans The Nazis Last Victims questions what Hungarians knew of their impending fate and examines the heightened sense of tension and haunting drama in Hungary where the largest single killing process of the Holocaust period occurred in the shortest amount of time Through the combination of two vital components of history writing the analytical and the recollective The Nazis Last Victims probes the destruction of the last remnant of European Jewry in the Holocaust
