Hopeful Realism in Urban Ministry Barry K. Morris, 2016-05-20 What pray tell does a faithful urban ministry require if not a triadic relationship of prayer justice and hope Could such a theologically conjunctive relationship of prayer justice and hope fortify urban ministry and challenge students and practitioners to ponder and practice beyond the box Frequently justice is collapsed to charity hope into wishful thinking or temporarily arrested despair and prayer a grasp at quick fix interventions An urban ministry's steadfast public and prophetic witness longs for the depth and width of this triad Via three countries decades of endeavors one chapter brainstorms urban ministry practices while another's literature survey signals crucial convictions Amid many seminal theologians are summoned to ground urban ministry intimations and implications Niebuhr on justice Moltmann on hope and Merton on contemplative prayer Evident is passion that fuels compassion in the service of justice hope that engages despair and prayer that draws from the contemplative center of it all thankful resources for long haul ministry The triad presses to illumine a concrete ministry's engagement of relentless forced option issues yet with significant networks resourcing Contrast awareness animates endurance The summary exegetes the original grace based serenity prayer Hence hope vitally balances realism's temptation to cynicism Realism saves hope from irrelevancy Views of Nature and Dualism Thomas John

Hastings, Knut-Willy Sæther, 2024-01-19 In the face of the anthropogenic threats to the singular planetary habitat we share with other human beings and non human species humanities scholars feel a renewed sense of urgency 1 to acknowledge the ways our species has funded particular histories of environmental exploitation alienation and collapse 2 to unpack inherited assumptions that impact our views of nature and interspecies relations and 3 to suggest ways of thinking and acting that seek to repair the damage and promote mutual flourishing for all of earth inhabitants This volume brings together scholars in philosophy theology and religion who take up this urgent ethical task from a broad range of perspectives and locations

Watershed Discipleship Ched Myers, 2016-10-21 This collection introduces and explores watershed discipleship as a critical contextual and constructive approach to ecological theology and practice and features emerging voices from a generation that has grown up under the shadow of climate catastrophe Watershed Discipleship is a triple entendre that recognizes we are in a watershed historical moment of crisis focuses on our intrinsically bioregional locus as followers of Jesus and urges us to become disciples of our watersheds Bibliographic framing essays by Myers trace his journey into a bioregionalist Christian faith and practice and offer reflections on incarnational theology hermeneutics and ecclesiology The essays feature more than a dozen activists educators and practitioners under the age of forty whose work and witness attest to a growing movement of resistance and reimagination across North America This anthology overviews the bioregional paradigm and its theological and political significance for local sustainability restorative justice and spiritual renewal Contributors reread both biblical texts and churchly practices such as mission baptism and liturgy through the lens of replacement Herein is a comprehensive and engaged call for a Transition church that can help turn our history around toward environmental resiliency and social justice by passionate advocates on the front lines of watershed discipleship

Spirituality in the Face of Climate Collapse James W. Perkinson, 2024-07-08 This book takes its motive force from our contemporary climate crisis It seeks to reorient human and especially Christian understanding towards a more ecologically focused indigenously informed way of living James W Perkinson argues that our current eco climatic and socio political emergency is the culmination of a 5 000 year history of supremacist settlement in which city states first emergent in Mesopotamia and Egypt not only begin coercively organizing labor into surplus production and ecosystems into inordinate and destructive yields of goods but in the process also simultaneously deform the Spirit World haloing of natural phenomenon into outsized service of imperial reach Perkinson recognizes globalized humanity as an emerging monstrosity destroying both human culture and the world How we re envision and revalue at our critical juncture our inescapable interdependence with the more than human world as peer and teacher and even elder is the central theme that throbs below the surface of the very disparate topics commanding attention in each chapter Christian Theology After Christendom Patricia G. Kirkpatrick, Pamela R. McCarroll, 2020-11-24 Christian Theology after Christendom Engaging the Thought of Douglas John Hall brings together contemporary thinkers to engage and build upon Douglas John Hall s work and to take up his challenge to reclaim a contextual and decolonizing theology of the cross as a means to speak to the realities of life and faith today With a focus on contemporary issues this edited collection critically analyzes and deconstructs the centuries old colonial triumphalism of Christian theology and the church in the West This book seeks to frame present day crises in ways that honor a deeply rooted theologia crucis that does not colonize the other It explores constructive decolonizing possibilities for Christian theology at the end of Christendom The Past, Present, and Future of Evangelical Mission Narry F. Santos, Xenia Ling-Yee Chan, 2022-07-15 Crisis is an invitation to both prophetic evaluation and new imagination In this volume Canadian missiologists and practitioners consider the past and how the past might enable the church to move forward in Christian mission in the academy agency assembly and the agora How can the Canadian church welcome different voices from the periphery What must be done to empower the next generation How can we respond in light of the injustices done to our Indigenous brothers and sisters Where does reconciliation fit into the picture How might we navigate between secularization and fundamentalisms How ought we move together in mission and in unity across denominational difference How can we equip laypeople to live their callings faithfully in the agora How can work in the marketplace be ministry And lastly how is the Spirit at work in our contexts in this day and age These questions among others onboard us into the ongoing conversation about the state of evangelical mission in Canada and each of these essays adeptly lead us into the beginnings of answers to these questions These essays address how the past informs our future and how we might answer the prophetic call with both hope and renewed vigor to participate in the mission of God Healing Haunted Histories Elaine Enns, Ched Myers, 2021-02-01 Healing Haunted Histories tackles the oldest and deepest injustices on the North American continent Violations which inhabit every intersection of settler and Indigenous worlds past and present Wounds inextricably woven into the fabric of our personal and political lives And it argues we can heal those wounds through the inward and outward journey of decolonization The authors write as and for settlers on this journey exploring the places peoples and spirits that have formed and deformed us They look at issues of Indigenous justice and settler response ability through the lens of Elaine s Mennonite family narrative tracing Landlines Bloodlines and Songlines like a braided river From Ukrainian steppes to Canadian prairies to California chaparral they examine her forebearers immigrant travails and trauma settler unknowing and complicity and traditions of resilience and conscience And they invite readers to do the same Part memoir part social historical and theological analysis and part practical workbook this process invites settler Christians and other people of faith into a discipleship of decolonization How are our histories landscapes and communities haunted by continuing Indigenous dispossession How do we transform our colonizing self perceptions lifeways and structures And how might we practice restorative solidarity with Indigenous communities today Political Trauma and Healing Brett,2016 How can Scripture address the crucial justice issues of our time In this book Mark Brett offers a careful reading of biblical texts that speak to such pressing public issues as the legacies of colonialism the demands of asylum seekers the challenges of climate change and the shaping of redemptive economies Brett argues that the Hebrew Bible can be read as a series of reflections on political trauma and healing the long saga of successive ancient empires violently asserting their sovereignty over Israel and of the Israelites forced to live out new pathways toward restoration Brett retrieves the prophetic voice of Scripture and applies it to our contemporary world addressing current justice issues in a relevant constructive compelling manner
