Building Blocks Design Learning Digital:

Building University Electronic Educational Environments Stephen D. Franklin, Ellen Strenski, 2013-03-14 The Internet and the World Wide Web are deeply affecting the way things are traditionally done E commerce is changing businesses the stock market is accessible to individuals digitized journals up to date databases and newsgroups are changing the lives of researchers Is it reasonable to think that learning will remain unaffected Nevertheless universities with their blend of teaching and research have much to offer to those who wish to learn more than simple skills judgment initiative and fair competition for research positions Over the years universities have acquired invaluable resources in the form of laboratories and libraries with specially trained staff How can they evolve to take advantage of the many possibilities of the Internet and broadband communication Many institutions of higher education are trying to integrate new information and communications technologies into current curricula or to develop new learning paradigms for learning Because it is still so early in the game they are eager to compare their efforts and results to the achievements of others and are willing to learn from them The International Federation for Information Processing IFIP is a multi national federation of professional and technical organizations founded in 1960 under the auspices of UNESCO whose mission is to assist in the development exploitation and application of Information Technology for the benefit of all peoples Given this scope of activity IFIP seemed the appropriate body to give an international dimension to such a forum Rethinking Pedagogy for a Digital Age ,2013-04-17 Through a critical discussion of the issues surrounding the design sharing and reuse of learning activities the second edition of Rethinking Pedagogy for a Digital Age examines a wide range of perspectives on effectively designing and delivering learning activities to ensure that future development is pedagogically sound learner focused and accessible This powerful book examines the reality of design in practice shares tools and resources to guide practice analyses design within complex systems discusses the influence of open resources on design includes design principles for mobile learning explores practitioner development in course teams presents scenarios for design for learning in an uncertain future Illustrated by case studies from across disciplines and supported by a helpful appendix of tools and resources for researchers practitioners and teachers the second edition of Rethinking Pedagogy for a Digital Age is an essential guide to designing for 21st Century learning
