Torres

Hortelano, 2017-12-01 Through provocative essays by specialists in different aspects of Japanese culture this book provides an historical and analytical survey of the presence of Goddesses in Japanese audiovisual culture from its origins to the present day It shows how these feminine myths are represented in Japan not only as beneficial or creative deities but also the archetypal strong or dominant woman that sometimes overshadows masculine figures and heroes or as influential figures Therefore it analyzes this rich dialectic of the feminine and how the audiovisual culture has represented it thus far in film TV series and video games made in Japan While many theories have been proposed to explain the presence of Goddesses in Japan this book's focus on audiovisual culture explores how this corpus challenges the traditional conceptions of the feminine as related to Goddesses Nightmare Japan Jay McRoy, 2008 Over the last two decades Japanese filmmakers have produced some of the most important and innovative works of cinematic horror At once visually arresting philosophically complex and politically charged films by directors like Tsukamoto Shinya Tetsuo The Iron Man 1988 and Tetsuo II Body Hammer 1992 Sato Hisayasu Muscle 1988 and Naked Blood 1995 Kurosawa Kiyoshi Cure 1997 Sance 2000 and Ka ro 2001 Nakata Hideo Ringu 1998 Ringu II 1999 and Dark Water 2002 and Miike Takashi Audition 1999 and Ichi the Killer 2001 continually revisit and redefine the horror genre in both its Japanese and global contexts In the process these and other directors of contemporary Japanese horror film consistently contribute exciting and important new visions from postmodern reworkings of traditional avenging spirit narratives to groundbreaking works of cinematic terror that position depictions of radical or monstrous alterity hybridity as metaphors for larger socio political concerns including shifting gender roles reconsiderations of the importance of the extended family as a social institution and reconceptualisations of the very notion of cultural and national boundaries Cinema and Painting Angela Dalle Vacche, 1996 The visual image is the common denominator of cinema and painting and indeed many filmmakers have used the imagery of paintings to shape or enrich the meaning of their films In this discerning new approach to cinema studies Angela Dalle Vacche discusses how the use of pictorial sources in film enables eight filmmakers to comment on the interplay between the arts on the dialectic of word and image on the relationship between artistic creativity and sexual difference and on the tension between tradition and modernity Specifically Dalle Vacche explores Jean Luc Godard's iconophobia Pierrot Le Fou and Andrei Tarkovsky's iconophilia Andrei Rublev Kenji Mizoguchi's split allegiances between East and West Five Women around Utamaro Michelangelo Antonioni's melodramatic sensibility Red Desert Eric Rohmer's project to convey interiority through images The Marquise of O F W Murnau's debt to Romantic landscape painting Nosferatu Vincente Minnelli's affinities with American Abstract Expressionism An American in Paris and Alain Cavalier's use of still life and the close up to explore the realms of mysticism and femininity Thérèse While addressing issues of influence and intentionality Dalle Vacche concludes that intertextuality is central to an appreciation of the dialogical nature of the filmic medium which in appropriating or rejecting art history defines itself in relation to national traditions and broadly shared visual cultures
