A Companion to Australian Aboriginal Literature Belinda Wheeler, 2013 This international collection of eleven original essays on Australian Aboriginal literature provides a comprehensive critical companion that contextualizes the Aboriginal canon for scholars researchers students and general readers Australian Aboriginal literature once relegated to the margins of Australian literary studies now receives both national and international attention Not only has the number of published texts by contemporary Australian Aboriginals risen sharply but scholars and publishers have also recently begun recovering earlier published and unpublished Indigenous works Writing by Australian Aboriginals is making a decisive impression in fiction autobiography biography poetry film drama and music and has recently been anthologized in Oceania and North America Until now however there has been no comprehensive critical companion that contextualizes the Aboriginal canon for scholars researchers students and general readers This international collection of eleven original essays fills this gap by discussing crucial aspects of Australian Aboriginal literature and tracing the development of Aboriginal literacy from the oral tradition up until today contextualizing the work of Aboriginal artists and writers and exploring aspects of Aboriginal life writing such as obstacles toward publishing questions of editorial control or the lack thereof intergenerational and interracial collaborations combining oral history and life writing and the pros and cons of translation into European languages Contributors Katrin Althans Maryrose Casey Danica Cerce Stuart Cooke Paula Anca Farca Michael R Griffiths Oliver Haag Martina Horakova Jennifer Jones Nicholas Jose Andrew King Jeanine Leane Theodore F Sheckels Belinda Wheeler Belinda Wheeler is Associate Professor of English at Claflin University Orangeburg SC

Indigenous Literature of Oceania Nicholas J. Goetzfridt, 1995-02-28 Oceania has a rich and growing literary tradition The imaginative literature that emerged in the 1960s often reflected the forms and structures of European literature though the ideas expressed were typically anticolonial After three decades the literature of Oceania has become much more complex in terms of style as well as content and authors write in a multiplicity of styles and voices While the written literature of Oceania is continuously gaining more critical attention questions about the imposition of European literary standards and values as a further extension of colonialism in the Pacific have become a central issue This book is a detailed survey of the expanding amount of critical and interpretive material written about the imaginative literature of authors from Oceania It focuses on commentary and scholarship concerned with the poetry fiction and drama written in English by indigenous peoples of the Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia The criticisms have appeared in academic books and journals since the mid 1960s They have developed to the point at which critical issues related to decolonization and the expression of ideas without having to first satisfy foreign expectations often determine the direction of such discussions Entries are grouped in topical chapters and each entry includes an extensive annotation An introductory essay summarizes the evolution of Pacific literature
