Feminist Theory and the Body Janet Price, Margrit Shildrick, 2017-09-25 This Reader provides students with a comprehensive overview of differing feminist approaches to the body Its wide range of contributions locate the important historical developments interdisciplinary perspectives and key discourses that have shaped this dynamic area of feminist theory

Literature, Gender, and the Trauma of Partition Debali Mookerjee-Leonard, 2017-04-07 Partition occurring simultaneously with British decolonization of the Indian subcontinent led to the formation of independent India and Pakistan While the political and communal aspects of the Partition have received some attention its enormous personal and psychological costs have been mostly glossed over particularly when it comes to the splitting of Bengal The memory of this historical ordeal has been preserved in literary archives and these archives are still being excavated This book examines neglected narratives of the Partition of India in 1947 to study the traces left by this foundational trauma on the national and regional cultural imaginaries in India Pakistan and Bangladesh To arrive at a more complex understanding of how Partition experiences of violence migration and displacement shaped postcolonial societies and subjectivities in South Asia the author analyses through novels and short stories multiple cartographies of disorientation and anxiety in the post Partition period The book illuminates how contingencies of political geography cut across personal and collective histories and how these intersections are variously marked and mediated by literature Examining works composed in Bengali and other South Asian languages this book seeks to broaden and complicate existing conceptions of what constitutes the Partition literary archive A valuable addition to the growing field of Partition studies this book will be of interest to scholars of South Asian history gender studies and literature

The Other Side of Silence Urvashi Butalia, 2000 A history of Partition the separation of India and Pakistan in 1947 from a personal and feminist perspective

Writing the Women's Movement Mala Khullar, 2005 Contributed articles presented earlier at several seminars on women's studies and feminism in India

Partitioned Lives: Narratives of Home, Displacement, and Resettlement Roy, Anjali Gera, Bhatia, Nandi (eds), 2007 Partitioned Lives Narratives of Home Displacement and Resettlement features fifteen essays that focus on personal subjective experiences of partition rather than on official accounts The book analyses fiction films and biographical and autobiographical accounts relating to the experience and influence of Partition It also studies partition related migrations not only to and from West Pakistan East Pakistan and India but also to the West Essays discuss how partition continues to influence cultural identities both in the subcontinent and among the diaspora

The Partition of Bengal Debjani Sengupta, 2015-10-22 This study looks at the rich literature that has been spawned through the historical imagination of Bengali speaking writers in West Bengal and Bangladesh through issues of homelessness migration and exile to see how the Partition of Bengal in 1947 has thrown a long shadow over memories and cultural practices Through a rich trove of literary and other materials the book lays bare how the Partition has been remembered or how it has been forgotten For the first time hitherto untranslated archival materials and texts in Bangla have been put together to assess the impact of 1947 on the cultural memory of Bangla speaking peoples and communities This study contends that there is not one but many smaller partitions that women and men suffered each with its own textures of pain guilt and affirmation

Conflicted Territories: Representations Of Ethnic And Political Disputes In World Literature Dr. Neha Soman, Dr. B. Padmanabhan, 2022-05-24 Conflicted Territories Representations of Ethnic and Political Disputes in World Literature is an attempt to contextualise the diversity and complexity of human territories around the globe through their manifestations in literature and popular culture The unrelenting presence of social variables such as indigeneity sovereignty and religion in territorial disputes obfuscates the possibility of conflict resolution due to their sensitive and complex traits This complexity is the kernel of this book in which each chapter explores the implications and dissensions of social variables in stifling global territorial crises

Gender and Memory Luisa Passerini, 2017-07-12 Gender and Memory brings together contributions from around the world and from a range of disciplines history and sociology socio linguistics and family therapy literature to create a volume that confronts all those concerned with autobiographical testimony and narrative both spoken and written The fundamental theme is the shaping of memory by gender This paperback edition includes a new introduction by Selma Leydesdorff coeditor of the Memory and Narrative series of which this volume is a part Are the different ways in which men and women are recalled in public and private memory and the differences in men's and women's own memories of similar experiences simply reflections of unequal lives in gendered societies or are they more deeply rooted The sharply differentiated life experiences of men and women in most human societies the widespread tendencies for men to dominate in the public sphere and for women's lives to focus on family and household suggest that these experiences may be reflected in different qualities of memory The contributors maintain that memories are gendered and that the gendering of memory makes a strong impact on the shaping of social spaces and expressive forms as the horizons of memory move from one generation to the next They argue that in order to understand how memory becomes gendered we need to travel through the realms of gendered experience and gendered language

The Public Intellectual and the Culture of Hope Joel Faflak, Jason Haslam, 2013-01-01 The Public Intellectual and the Culture of Hope reflects on the challenging and often vexed work of intellectualism within the public sphere by exploring how cultural materials frame intellectual debates within the clear and ever present gaze of the public writ large

The Silence That Speaks Haris Qadeer, 2020-12-31 This ground breaking anthology brings together 38 short stories culled from over a century of writing by Muslim women from colonial and postcolonial India Selected from different Indian languages it includes fascinating stories by celebrated and emerging authors It also excavates stories from early women's journals such as Tehzeeb e Niswan Saogat and Indian Ladies Magazine Written in different styles modes and forms the stories deconstruct cultural essentialism often involved in imagining Muslim womanhood and reflect upon the diversity of imagined and lived experiences They challenge sundry labels explore intersections of identities debunk several myths and demonstrate how the authors navigate the world of voices and silences Ranging from imaginarygeographies to topographies of Muslim ghettos most of these powerful storiesnarrate the spaces that Muslim women inhabit and delineatetheir courage desires freedom struggle and myriad subjectivities
