Beyond the White Negro Kimberly Chabot Davis, 2014-07-15 Critics often characterize white consumption of African American culture as a form of theft that echoes the fantasies of 1950s era bohemians or White Negroes who romanticized black culture as anarchic and sexually potent In Beyond the White Negro Kimberly Chabot Davis claims such a view fails to describe the varied politics of racial crossover in the past fifteen years Davis analyzes how white engagement with African American novels film narratives and hip hop can help form anti racist attitudes that may catalyze social change and racial justice Though acknowledging past failures to establish cross racial empathy she focuses on examples that show avenues for future progress and change Her study of ethnographic data from book clubs and college classrooms shows how engagement with African American culture and pedagogical support can lead to the kinds of white self examination that make empathy possible The result is a groundbreaking text that challenges the trend of focusing on society's failures in achieving cross racial empathy and instead explores possible avenues for change

Post-Soul Satire Derek C. Maus, James J. Donahue, 2014-07-07 From 30 Americans to Angry White Boy from Bamboozled to The Boondocks from Chappelle's Show to The Colored Museum this collection of twenty one essays takes an interdisciplinary look at the flowering of satire and its influence in defining new roles in black identity As a mode of expression for a generation of writers comedians cartoonists musicians filmmakers and visual conceptual artists satire enables collective questioning of many of the fundamental presumptions about black identity in the wake of the civil rights movement Whether taking place in popular and controversial television shows in a provocative series of short internet films in prize winning novels and plays in comic strips or in conceptual hip hop albums this satirical impulse has found a receptive audience both within and outside the black community Such works have been variously called post black post soul and examples of a New Black Aesthetic Whatever the label this collection bears witness to a noteworthy shift regarding the ways in which African American satirists feel constrained by conventional obligations when treating issues of racial identity historical memory and material representation of blackness Among the artists examined in this collection are Paul Beatty Dave Chappelle Trey Ellis Percival Everett Donald Glover a.k.a. Childish Gambino Spike Lee Aaron McGruder Lynn Nottage ZZ Packer Suzan Lori Parks Mickalene Thomas Tour Kara Walker and George C Wolfe The essays intentionally seek out interconnections among various forms of artistic expression Contributors look at the ways in which contemporary African American satire engages in a broad ranging critique that exposes fraudulent outdated absurd or otherwise damaging mindsets and behaviors both within and outside the African American community

Neo-Passing Mollie Godfrey, Vershawn Young, 2018-02-21 African Americans once passed as whites to escape the pains of racism Today's neo passing has pushed the old idea of passing in extraordinary new directions A white author uses an Asian pen name heterosexuals live out as gay and irony of ironies whites try to pass as black Mollie Godfrey and Vershawn Ashanti Young present essays that explore practices performances and texts of neo passing in our supposedly postracial moment The authors move from the postracial imagery of Angry Black White Boy and the issues of sexual orientation and race in ZZ Packer's short fiction to the politics of Dave Chappelle's skits as a black President George W Bush Together the works reveal that the questions raised by neo passing questions about performing and contesting identity in relation to social norms remain as relevant today as in the past Contributors Derek Adams Christopher M Brown Martha J Cutter Marcia Alesan Dawkins Michele Elam Alisha Gaines Jennifer Glaser Allyson Hobbs Brandon J Manning Loran Marsan

Lara Narcisi Eden Osucha Gayle Wald and Deborah Elizabeth Whaley Abolishing White Masculinity from Mark Twain to Hip-hop Stephany Rose, 2014-03-25 Abolishing White Masculinity from Mark Twain to Hip-hop examines white American male literature for its social commentary on the construction of whiteness in the United States Whiteness has always been a contested racial identity in the U S one in a state of construction and reconstruction throughout critical cultural and historical moments This text examines how white American male writers have grappled with understanding themselves and their audiences as white beings Abolishing White Masculinity from Mark Twain to Hip-hop specifically brings a critical whiteness approach to American literary criticism and strengthens the growing interdisciplinary field of critical whiteness studies in the humanities Critical whiteness studies shifts the attention from solely examining people and perspectives of color in race discourse to addressing whiteness as an essential component of race ideology The primary contribution of this perspective is in how whites construct and see whiteness for the larger purpose of exploring the possibilities of how they may come to no longer construct and see themselves through whiteness Understanding this is at the heart of contemporary discussions of post raciality Abolishing White Masculinity from Mark Twain to Hip-hop uses the following texts as canonical case studies Pudd'n head Wilson and Those Extraordinary Twins by Mark Twain The Great Gatsby and The Beautiful and the Damned by F Scott Fitzgerald and Angry Black White Boy and The End of the Jews by Adam Mansbach Each underscores the dialectic of formation deformation and reformation of whiteness at specific socio historical moments based upon anxieties about race possessed by whites and highlighted by white fictionists The selected writers ultimately serve dually as co constructors of whiteness and social critics of their times through their literature The Guide for White Women Who Teach Black Boys Eddie Moore Jr., Ali Michael, Marguerite W. Penick-Parks, 2017-09-22 Empower black boys to dream believe achieve Schools that routinely fail Black boys are not extraordinary In fact they are all too ordinary If we are to succeed in positively shifting outcomes for Black boys and young men we must first change the way school is done That's where the eight in ten teachers who are White women fit in and this urgently needed resource is written specifically for them as a way to help them understand respect and connect with all of their students So much more than a call to action but that too The Guide for White Women Who Teach Black Boys brings together research activities personal stories and video interviews to help us all embrace the deep realities and thrilling potential of this crucial American task With Eddie Ali and Marguerite as your mentors you will learn how to Develop learning environments that help Black boys feel a sense of belonging nurturance challenge and love at school Change school culture so that Black boys can show up in the wholeness of their selves Overcome your unconscious bias and forge authentic connections with your Black male students If you are a teacher who is afraid to talk about race that's okay Fear is a normal human emotion and racial competence is a skill that can be learned We promise that reading this extraordinary guide will be a life changing first step forward for both you and the students you serve About the Authors Dr Eddie Moore Jr has pursued and achieved success in academia business diversity leadership and community

Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts, Volume II James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2015-04-22 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state-of-the-art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading writing speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young A project of the International Reading Association published and distributed by Routledge Taylor Francis Visit <http://www.reading.org> for more information about International Reading Association books membership and other services

Street, Text, and Representation in African American Literature Matti Rischard, 2024-05-31 Comprehensive and comparative this volume investigates African American street novelists since the Chicago Black Renaissance and the semiotic strategies they employ in publication consumption and depiction of street life Divided into three chapters this text analyzes the content style and ethics of street narrative through a discursive rhetorical lens exploring the development of street literature's formal and contextual concerns to resolve the sociocultural and political questions surrounding cultural work The book also gives emphasis to text or post-structural literary analysis by answering questions about the genre's aesthetic and linguistic techniques that respond to the injustices of urban planning The last chapter Representation investigates the phenomenological hermeneutics of more recent street literature and its satire highlighting the political stakes for authorship credibility and subjectivity Through historical and contemporary studies of urban space Blackness and adaptations of street literature this work attempts to network activists artists and scholars with the greater reading public by providing a functional ontology of reading the inner city
