Primary Science Readers' Theatre Sharon Solomon, 2002-03 Text links science and language arts using several activities for students Nonfiction Readers Theatre for Beginning Readers Anthony D. Fredericks, 2007-04-30 Teachers and librarians are continually looking for an interesting fun way to input content knowledge to build that background information which will help push up student expository reading scores Nonfiction readers theatre is one way to accomplish this Professor Fredericks offers 30 short nonfiction readers theatre plays for the young reader grades 1 3 on topics ranging from earth and natural science to community helpers holidays and government Test scores across the country show American students are far more able to read narrative than nonfiction text Some research speculates this is due to a great lack in the background knowledge of many children Librarians are beginning to realize that a unique fit for the school librarian is as a provider of background knowledge materials for teachers to use Reading for Information in Elementary School Nancy

Frey, Douglas Fisher, 2007 Reading for Information in Elementary School Content Literacy Strategies to Build Comprehension was written to give k 5 teachers the tools they need to lay an educational groundwork that promotes students success with informational text from the early grades Packed with research based classroom proven strategies the book follows a before during and after reading format that models the most effective approach to reading for information focusing on the processes required to develop content literacy You ll meet the teachers sit in on their lessons witness their students responses and come away from this book with a model for teaching your students to read successfully for information and a handbook of proven strategies to implement Features Examples of instructional strategies This book follows six elementary teachers grades K 5 as they utilize strategies with informational texts These examples are detailed and include student and teacher dialogue to provide readers with the sense they are watching the lesson unfold Each focus instructional strategy is research based The instructional strategies outlined in this book have a research base and have been implemented in schools across the country Margin notes provide readers with additional information and resources Readers are referred to other sources of information at common places that they may have questions A clear process for organizing instruction is provided The strategies and texts presented in the book follow the before during after instructional organization used by teachers to foster reading comprehension Book covers of informational texts Each chapter features the covers and bibliographical information of some of the best informational texts available today Story Stretchers for the Primary Grades Shirley C.

Raines, Robert J. Canady, 1992 A collection of ideas for activities to use in conjunction with over 90 children's books

Storytimes for Children Stephanie G. Bauman, 2010-11-10 This text presents a compilation of the best of ideas from a group of library science graduate students providing creative and engaging programs geared especially for children ages 0-12. What are the concepts, activities, and topics that will hold the attention of today's children? And what are the best ways to provide a valuable learning experience while they're having fun and being entertained? Many of the most original, creative, and wildly effective ideas in storytime are contained in Storytimes for Children, a collection of fresh and vibrant programs created to be relevant, interesting, and fun for today's youngest generations. This collection of themed storytimes includes suggestions for opening and closing sessions, crafts, and activities, songs, poems, fingerplays, and movements, as well as the accompanying literature. Several of the included storytimes comprise a series of programs allowing for related activities that build upon each other. The text is organized into six chapters, each prefaced by an introduction that clarifies the strengths of the programs within. Each chapter covers a highly targeted age range to give practitioners the ability to easily choose the most appropriate storytimes for any given audience. Environmental education in the schools: creating a program that works. ,

Theatre/Archaeology Mike Pearson, Michael Shanks, 2005-07-08 Theatre Archaeology is a provocative challenge to disciplinary practice and intellectual boundaries. It brings together radical proposals in both archaeological and performance theory to generate a startlingly original and intriguing methodological framework. Wings of Fancy Joan Garner, 2006-09-30 Featuring scripts for well-known classical fantasy stories as well as more current entries into the genre, Wings of Fancy addresses subgenres such as Fairies and Enchanted Creatures, Fantastic Beasts, and Talking Animals. Each script offers a summary of the story with background information on the author and story, plus suggested further readings. Staging and presentation directions are included, as is a glossary of new and unfamiliar terms. Unlike most other books of this type, lesson plans and project ideas are also included for each story. Grades 4-8. The Readers Theatre series presents original scripts written for the purpose of teaching a specific literary genre. Each book is composed of 24-28 scripts keyed to published books, plays, poems, or stories in that genre, encouraging students to read the originals to accomplish the correlated project. Staging and presentation directions are included. Two leveled lower and higher level projects with all needed lesson plans, forms, and discussion are also provided for each script. Resources in Education , 1998
