Historias paralelas James S. Amelang, 2011-11-10 Pocos aspectos de la historia moderna de España han suscitado tanto interés como la evolución y el trágico fin de sus dos minorías étnico religiosas los moriscos y los judeoconversos. Y es que a pesar de sus muchas diferencias los descendientes de los musulmanes y los judíos de Al Andalus sufrieron la misma suerte de discriminación y persecución. Pero a pesar de compartir una experiencia histórica parecida ha habido muy pocos intentos de estudiar estos dos grupos conjuntamente. Este texto pretende realizar un análisis comparativo de las historias paralelas de los moriscos y los conversos atendiendo tanto a las semejanzas como a las diferencias de dos historias que se han dado la espalda y que merecen ser vistas como dos hilos de un mismo destino histórico.

Becoming a New Self Moshe Sluhovsky, 2017-10-12 In Becoming a New Self Moshe Sluhovsky examines the diffusion of spiritual practices among lay Catholics in early modern Europe. By offering a close examination of early modern Catholic penitential and meditative techniques Sluhovsky makes the case that these practices promoted the idea of achieving a new self through the knowing of oneself. Practices such as the examination of conscience, general confession, and spiritual exercises which until the 1400s had been restricted to monastic elites breached the walls of monasteries in the period that followed. Thanks in large part to Franciscans and Jesuits lay urban elites both men and women gained access to spiritual practices whose goal was to enhance belief and create new selves. Using Michel Foucault's writing on the hermeneutics of the self and the French philosopher's intuition that the early modern period was a moment of transition in the configurations of the self Sluhovsky offers a broad panorama of spiritual and devotional techniques of self formation and subjectivation.
