Flanzbaum, 2021-06-29 Literature of the Holocaust courses whether taught in high schools or at universities necessarily cover texts from a broad range of international contexts Instructors are required regardless of their own disciplinary training to become comparatists and discuss all works with equal expertise This book offers analyses of the ways in which representations of the Holocaust whether in text film or material culture are shaped by national context providing a valuable pedagogical source in terms of both content and methodology As memory yields to post memory nation of origin plays a larger role in each re telling and the chapters in this book explore this notion covering well known texts like Night Hungary Survival in Auschwitz Italy MAUS United States This Way to the Gas Poland and The Reader Germany while also introducing lesser known representations from countries like Argentina or Australia

Holocaust Mothers and Daughters Federica K. Clementi, 2013-12-03 In this brave and original work Federica Clementi focuses on the mother daughter bond as depicted in six works by women who experienced the Holocaust sometimes with their mothers sometimes not The daughters' memoirs which record the all too human qualities of those who were persecuted and murdered by the Nazis show that the Holocaust cannot be used to neatly segregate lives into the categories of before and after Clementi's discussions of differences in social status along with the persistence of antisemitism and patriarchal structures support this point strongly demonstrating the tenacity of trauma individual familial and collective among Jews in twentieth century Europe Out of Chaos Elaine Saphier Fox,2013-08-31 The stories in Out of Chaos forms a profound testament to lost and found lives that are translated into compelling reading The collection illuminates brief or elongated moments fragments of memory and experience what the great Holocaust writer Ida Fink called a scrap of time In all the anthology expresses survivors memories and reactions to a wide range of experiences as they survived in so many European settings from Holland Belgium Italy Germany Greece Yugoslavia Poland and France The writers recall being on the run between different countries escaping over mountains hiding and even sometimes forgetting their Jewish identities in convents and rescuers homes and hovels basements and attics Some were left on their own others found themselves embroiled in rescuer family conflicts Some writers chose to write story clusters each one capturing a moment or incident and often disconnected by memory or temporal and spatial divides
