Animals On The Agenda Questions About Animals For Theology And Ethics:

Animals on the Agenda Andrew Linzey, Dorothy Yamamoto, 1998 This encyclopaedic volume is the most comprehensive collection of original studies on animals and theology ever published With contributors from both sides of the Atlantic it tackles many apparently simple issues which raise fundamental questions about theology and how it is done Animals, Theology and the Incarnation Kris Hiuser, 2017-06-12 In this book Kris Hiuser argues that if we are called to represent God to creation and creation to God then this has considerable bearing on understanding what it means to be human as well as informing human action towards non human creatures Animals and Animality in the Babylonian Talmud Beth A. Berkowitz, 2018-04-19 Animals and Animality in the Babylonian Talmud selects key themes in animal studies animal intelligence morality sexuality suffering danger personhood and explores their development in the Babylonian Talmud Beth A Berkowitz demonstrates that distinctive features of the Talmud the new literary genre the convergence of Jewish Christian and Zoroastrian cultures the Talmud's removal from Temple centered biblical Israel led to unprecedented possibilities within Jewish culture for conceptualizing animals and animality She explores their development in the Babylonian Talmud showing how it is ripe for reading with a critical animal studies perspective When we do we find waiting for us a multi layered surprisingly self aware discourse about animals as well as about the anthropocentrism that infuses human relationships with them For readers of religion Judaism and animal studies her book offers new perspectives on animals from the vantage point of the ancient rabbis The Ethics of Animal Experimentation Donna Yarri, 2005-08-18 The ethical treatment of animals has become an issue of serious moral concern Many people are challenging long held assumptions about animals and raising questions about their status and treatment What is the relationship between humans and animals Do animals have moral standing Do we have direct or indirect duties to animals Does human benefit always outweigh animal suffering The use of animals for experimentation raises all of these questions in a particularly insistent way Donna Yarri gives an overview of the current state of the discussion and presents an argument for significantly restricted animal experimentation Pointing to the similarities between humans and animals she argues that the actual differences are differences of degree rather than kind Animal cognition and animal sentience together are the basis for the claim that experimental animals do have rights Examining arguments in the disciplines of ethology philosophy science and theology Yarri makes a case for placing substantial restrictions on animal experimentation Grounding her examination in Christian theology she formulates a more humane approach to animal experimentation She concludes with a concrete burden benefit analysis that can serve as the foundation for informed decision making The Ethics of Animal Experimentation serves as both a handbook of animal rights theory and a practical guide to navigating the complexities of animal experimentation As animal experimentation features in an increasing number of scientific endeavors it is an ethical issue that requires our immediate attention Yarri's unique contribution forges a path toward an ethical practice of animal experimentation T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation ,2024-03-07 The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation

Developing Animal Theology Clair Linzey,2021-10-27 This book offers an up to date examination of the nature and development of animal theology It considers what animal theology is and how it challenges and is challenged by liberation and ecological theology At the heart of the work is a critical engagement with the Brazilian ecotheologian Leonardo Boff Clair Linzey addresses ideas that originate from the papal encyclical Laudato Si and considers how Pope Francis is developing an animal friendly tradition within Catholicism Exploring new vistas in animal theology this volume makes a valuable contribution to debates on how religion should be concerned with animals and the environment This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to know the current state of debate with animal theology and its effects on the wider Christian community

Inherited Land Whitney A. Bauman,Richard R. Bohannon II,Kevin J. O'Brien,2011-08-04 Religion and ecology has arrived What was once a niche interest for a few academics concerned with environmental issues and a few environmentalists interested in religion has become an established academic field with classic texts graduate programs regular meetings at academic conferences and growing interest from other academics and the mass media Theologians ethicists sociologists and other scholars are engaged in a broad dialogue about the ways religious studies can help understand and address environmental problems including the sorts of methodological terminological and substantive debates that characterize any academic discourse This book recognizes the field that has taken shape reflects on the ways it is changing and anticipates its development in the future The essays offer analyses and reflections from emerging scholars of religion and ecology each addressing her or his own specialty in light of two questions 1 What have we inherited from the work that has come before us and 2 What inquiries concerns and conversation partners should be central to the next generation of scholarship The aim of this volume is not to lay out a single and clear path forward for the field Rather the authors critically reflect on the field from within outline some of the major issues we face in the academy and offer perspectives that will nurture continued dialogue

The Global Guide to Animal Protection Andrew Linzey,2013-06-01 Raising awareness of human indifference and cruelty toward animals The Global Guide to Animal Protection includes more than 180 introductory articles that survey the extent of worldwide human exploitation of animals from a variety of perspectives In addition to entries on often disturbing examples of human cruelty toward animals the book provides inspiring accounts of attempts by courageous individuals including Jane Goodall Shirley McGreal Birute Mary Galdikas Richard D Ryder and Roger Fouts to challenge and change exploitative practices As concern for animals and their welfare grows this volume will be an indispensable aid to general readers activists scholars and students interested in developing a keener awareness of cruelty to animals and considering avenues for reform Also included is a special foreword by Archbishop Desmond Tutu urging readers to seek justice and protection for all creatures humans and animals alike

Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa

Animal Rites Andrew Linzey, 2015-06-23 Christians believe that the logos is the source of all life yet Christian worship remains unashamedly human centric The world of creation and animals in particular is almost invisible in our worship The churches do not have the liturgical means of celebrating the life of animals giving thanks for their companionship praying for the relief of their suffering or marking their death This unique book provides a variety of liturgies that are animal friendly and animal inclusive They include services in celebration of animal companionship services for animal welfare healing liturgies new eucharistic prayers for the whole creation and animal burial services Underlying all these new forms is a serious theological purpose to help us to draw deeper into the mystery of God's work in creation and to affirm other sentient beings as co creatures with us
