Better Iep Meetings Everyone Wins:

Better IEP Meetings Cynthia M. Herr, Barbara D. Bateman, 2006 Creating a "Win-Win IEP" for Students with Autism Beth Fouse, 1999 This book is a must read for every parent or educator who participates in the IEP process Dr Fouse takes readers through the entire range of a child centered educational process from the initial stages of identification and diagnosis to full implementation and monitoring of the individualized education program She walks you through the process of setting goals and objectives getting the most out of IEP meetings determining proper placement requesting assistive technology and much more She explains laws that you will need to know inside and out such as the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Section 504 Americans with Disabilities Act and FERPA Finally she lists some common mistakes that schools and parents often make and gives great advice on how to avoid conflicts 0000000000:0000000000 00
□, 2021-01-01 IEP Voices From Around the IEP Table Karrin Lukacs, Sherry L. Steeley, 2018-10-14 When a group meets to discuss a student's Individualized Education Program IEP they are called a team but they rarely understand the perspectives of the people with whom they are sitting at the table This is especially true when cultural and linguistic diversity is part of the equation This unique book explores the individual perspectives of IEP meeting participants who work with students who are culturally and linguistically diverse CLD Authors interviewed a principal a general education teacher a special education teacher a teacher of English for Speakers of Other Languages ESOL an educational advocate a disability rights attorney a parent a translator a school psychologist a specialist a transition services specialist and a guidance counselor Their experiences provide critical insight for those seeking to realize the potential of these sometimes marginalized students Interviews examined the dynamics of home school communication IEP meetings and cross cultural interactions The perspectives shared in this book relate to known best practices and also provide practical suggestions for improving the experiences of teams serving the CLD population Collaborative Individualized Education Process Evie K. Gleckel, Ellen S. Koretz, 2008 This new book captures the authors shared visions about the special education process one that incorporates the spirit and requirements of the Individual with Disabilities Education Act and its reauthorizations It gives the complex demands of the legislation form function and meaning so teams move through the special education process cooperatively understanding what they are doing and why The book is organized according to the stages of the RSVP Model to provide a systematic and comprehensive approach to implementing special education legislation meaningfully Features Think Abouts at the beginning of the chapter serve as advanced organizers that preview the content covered and highlight key points Figures to illustrate concepts presented Toolboxes to prompt thinking and practice through guideline questions checklists and examples of assessment and instructional approaches Case Studies Chapter Review Focus and Decisions recap the stage presented in the chapter highlighting key questions and decision points Apply and Learn pose reflective questions at the end of the chapter to develop competence and thinking of presented concepts related to the stage A Parents'
