Bodies Borders Believers Ancient Texts And Present Conversations:

"Bodies, Borders, Believers" Anne Hege Grung, Marianne Bjelland Kartzow, Anna Rebecca Solevag, 2016-05-26 This stimulating collection of essays by prominent scholars honours Turid Karlsen Seim. Bodies Borders Believers brings together biblical scholars, ecumenical theologians, archaeologists, classicists, art historians and church historians working side by side to probe the past and its receptions in the present. The contributions relate in one way or another to Seim's broad research interests covering such themes as gender analysis, bodily practices and ecumenical dialogue. The editors have brought together an international group of scholars and among the contributors many scholarly traditions, theoretical orientations and methodological approaches are represented, making this book an interdisciplinary and border crossing endeavour. A comprehensive bibliography of Seim's work is included. Bodies, Borders, Believers Anne Hege Grung, Marianne Bjelland Kartzow, Anna Rebecca Solevag, 2016-05-26 An interdisciplinary collection of essays celebrating the contributions of Norwegian theologian Turid Karlsen Seim, bringing a range of perspectives to the themes developed in her work. Ancient Christian Apocrypha Outi Lehtipuu, Silke Petersen, 2022-08-05 This latest volume in the Bible and Women series examines ancient noncanonical Christian texts for what they reveal about women, their engagement with Scripture and attitudes toward them in texts dating to the second to eighth century. Three sections include once forgotten texts rediscovered in locations such as Nag Hammadi; those that have been in continuous use through the centuries; and works written by women that are traditionally excluded from discussions of noncanonical texts. Contributors: Bernadette J. Brooken, Mar a Jos Cabezas Cabello, Anna Carfora, Ute E. Eisen, Judith Hartenstein, Ursula Ulrike Kaiser, Karen L. King, Outi Lehtipuu, Heidrun Mader, Antti Marjanen, Silvia Pellegrini, Silke Petersen, Uwe Karsten Plisch, Cristina Simonelli, Anna Rebecca Solev g, M Dolores Martin Trutet and Carmen Bernab Ubieta examine a range of texts including noncanonical gospels and acts, poems, prophecy and grave inscriptions. Christians Shaping Identity from the Roman Empire to Byzantium Geoffrey Dunn, Wendy Mayer, 2015-07-14 The essays collected in Christians Shaping Identity celebrate Pauline Allen's significant contribution to early Christian, late antique and Byzantine studies, especially concerning bishops, heresy, orthodoxy and christology. Covering the period from earliest Christianity to middle Byzantium, the first eighteen essays explore the varied ways in which Christians constructed their own identity and that of the society around them. A final four essays explore the same theme within Roman Catholicism and oriental Christianity in the late 19th to 21st centuries, with particular attention to the subtle relationships between the shaping of the early Christian past and the moulding of Christian identity today. Among the many leading scholars represented are Averil Cameron and Elizabeth A. Clark. Jesus, Paul, Luke-Acts, and 1 Clement David L. Balch, 2023-06-19 In this book the author draws on two original sources: on a Greek biographer, historian and rhetorician, Dionysius of Halicarnassus, as well as on Pompeian domestic art and architecture. Generally NT scholars read texts, but Greeks and ancient Romans loved beauty. The walls and floors of their houses were decorated with thousands of colorful

frescoes and mosaics art that two millennia later is still on display in Pompeii Christians lived and worshipped in those typical houses relating the art to NT texts generates many intriguing new questions What stories myths did Greeks and Romans see every day What were their sports and how violent were they Many NT scholars know as much or more Latin than they do Greek and they therefore cite the Latin historian Livy rather than the Greek Dionysius who wrote a century before the first Christian historian Luke Dionysius rhetoric expressed values shared across cultures by Greeks Romans and Jews e g by the historian and rhetorician Josephus some values that Luke also shares Dionysius makes clear that cities and ethnic groups had to praise how they treated emigrant foreigners questions handled differently by Josephus and by Luke This enables new interpretations of Jesus inaugural speech in Luke 4 and of Peter s second Pentecost speech in Acts 10

Negotiating the Disabled Body Anna Rebecca Solevåg,2018-10-29 An intersectional study of New Testament and noncanonical literature

Anna Rebecca Solev g explores how nonnormative bodies are presented in early Christian literature through the lens of disability studies In a number of case studies Solev g shows how early Christians struggled to come to terms with issues relating to body health and dis ability in the gospel stories apocryphal narratives Pauline letters and patristic expositions Solev g uses the concepts of narrative prosthesis gaze and stare stigma monster theory and crip theory to examine early Christian material to reveal the multiple polyphonous contradictory ways in which nonnormative bodies appear Features Case studies that reveal a variety of understandings attitudes medical frameworks and taxonomies for how disabled bodies were interpreted A methodology that uses disability as an analytical tool that contributes insights about cultural categories ideas of otherness and social groups access to or lack of power An intersectional perspective drawing on feminist gender queer race class and postcolonial studies

Childhood in History Reidar Aasgaard,Cornelia Horn,2017-07-20 Inquiring into childhood is one of the most appropriate ways to address the perennial and essential question of what it is that makes human beings each of us human In Childhood in History Perceptions of Children in the Ancient and Medieval Worlds Aasgaard Horn and Cojocaru bring together the groundbreaking work of nineteen leading scholars in order to advance interdisciplinary historical research into ideas about children and childhood in the premodern history of European civilization The volume gathers rich insights from fields as varied as pedagogy and medicine and literature and history Drawing on a range of sources in genres that extend from philosophical theological and educational treatises to law art and poetry from hagiography and autobiography to school lessons and sagas these studies aim to bring together these diverse fields and source materials and to allow the development of new conversations This book will have fulfilled its unifying and explicit goal if it provides an impetus to further research in social and intellectual history and if it prompts both researchers and the interested wider public to ask new questions about the experiences of children and to listen to their voices

The Slave Metaphor and Gendered Enslavement in Early Christian Discourse Marianne Bjelland Kartzow,2018-04-17 The Slave

Metaphor and Gendered Enslavement in Early Christian Discourse adds new knowledge to the ongoing discussion of slavery in early Christian discourse Kartzow argues that the complex tension between metaphor and social reality in early Christian discourse is undertheorized A metaphor can be so much more than an innocent thought figure it involves bodies relationships life stories and memory in complex ways The slavery metaphor is troubling since it makes theology of a social institution that is profoundly troubling This study rethinks the potential meaning of the slavery metaphor in early Christian discourse by use of a variety of texts read with a whole set of theoretical tools taken from metaphor theory and intersectional gender studies in particular It also takes seriously the contemporary context of modern slavery where slavery has re appeared as a term to name trafficking gendered violence and inhuman power systems Snapshots of Evolving Traditions Liv Ingeborg

Lied,Hugo Lundhaug,2017-01-23 Scholars of early Christian and Jewish literature have for many years focused on interpreting texts in their hypothetical original forms and contexts while largely overlooking important aspects of the surviving manuscript evidence and the culture that produced it This volume of essays seeks to remedy this situation by focusing on the material aspects of the manuscripts themselves and the fluidity of textual transmission in a manuscript culture With an emphasis on method and looking at texts as they have been used and transmitted in manuscripts this book discusses how we may deal with textual evidence that can often be described as mere snapshots of fluid textual traditions that have been intentionally adapted to fit ever shifting contexts The emphasis of the book is on the contexts and interests of users and producers of texts as they appear in our surviving manuscripts rather than on original authors and their intentions and the essays provide both important correctives to former textual interpretations as well as new insights into the societies and individuals that copied and read the texts in the manuscripts that have actually been preserved to us Women and Knowledge in Early Christianity Ulla Tervahauta,Ivan Miroshnikov,Outi Lehtipuu,Ismo Dunderberg,2017-10-17 Women and Knowledge in Early Christianity offers a collection of essays that deal with perceptions of wisdom femaleness and their interconnections in a wide range of ancient sources including papyri Nag Hammadi documents heresiological accounts and monastic literature
