Identities, Borderscapes, Orders Benjamin Tallis, 2023-02-06 This book provides a pre history of Russia's war on Ukraine and Europe's relations to it illuminating the deep roots of the EU's neighbourhood crisis as well as the migration crises the Union created in the last decade To do so the book employs a new and innovative framework that allows for a comprehensive yet nuanced analysis of borders and a more cogent interpretation of their socio political consequences Drawing on interdisciplinary scholarship the book analytically examines the key common elements of borderscapes and links them in related arrays to allow for nuanced evaluation of both their particular and cumulative effects as well as interpretation of their overall consequences particularly for issues of identities and orders The book offers a significant conceptual and theoretical advance providing a transferable conceptualization of borderscapes to guide research analysis and interpretation Drawing on the author's experience in policy practice and academia it also makes a methodological contribution by pushing the boundaries of reflexivity in interpretive International Relations IR research Analyzing three main sites in Central and Eastern Europe CEE the book challenges conventional critical wisdom on EU bordering in the Schengen zone at its external frontiers and in its Eastern neighborhood In so doing it sheds new light on the politics of post communist transitions as well as the contemporary politics of CEE It also shows how EU bordering and its relations to identities and orders created great benefits for many Europeans but also hindered the lives of many others and became self defeating This book is a must read for scholars students and policy makers interested in a better understanding of Critical Border Studies CBS in particular and International Relations in general It will also appeal to anyone interested in CEE or wishing to get a deeper understanding of Russia's war and the fight for Europe's future

Border Culture Victor Konrad, Anne-Laure Amilhat Szary, 2022-12-29 This book introduces readers to the cultural imaginings of borders the in between spaces in which transnationalism collides with geopolitical cooperation and contestation Recent debates about the refugee crisis and the spread of the COVID 19 pandemic have politicized culture at and of borders like never before Border culture is no longer culture at the margins but rather culture at the heart of geopolitics flows and experience of the transnational world Increasingly culture and borders are everywhere yet nowhere In border spaces national narratives and counter narratives are tested and evaluated coming up against transnational culture This book provides an extensive and critical vision of border culture on the move drawing on numerous examples worldwide and a growing international literature across border and cultural studies It shows how border culture develops in the human imagination and manifests in human constructs of nation and state as well as in transnationalism By analyzing this new and expanding cultural geography of border landscapes the book shows the way to a fresh broader dialogue Exploring the nature and meaning of the intersection of border and culture this book will be an essential read for students and researchers across border studies geopolitics geography and cultural studies

Governing Human Life Ondrej Ditrych, Constanza Sánchez Avilés, 2023-08-31 This book is a critical analysis tracing the operation of biopolitical mode of power in the global field of drug control Through a series of theoretically framed investigations that relate current drug control policies to the broader frame of vital politics it attends to the relationship of drug control state of exception and democracy exploring how pressures of resurgent sovereignty and neoliberal governmentality imprint on drug policy Then it turns attention to the relationship of power and knowledge with a particular focus on the evidence based approaches that may at times sustain rather than challenge prohibitionist drug control policies Finally it looks at how the global drug control dispositif shapes life on one of Europe's internal peripheries These investigations are intended to illuminate the operation of the drug control dispositif and its far reaching biopolitical effects in order to expand the space for devising more competent and compassionate public policies

Border images, border narratives Johan Schimanski, Jopi Nyman, 2021-02-02 This interdisciplinary volume explores the role of images and narratives in different borderscapes Written by experienced scholars in the field Border images border narratives provides fresh insight into how borders borderscapes and migration are imagined and narrated in public and private spheres Offering new ways to approach the political aesthetics of the border and its ambiguities this volume makes a valuable contribution to the methodological renewal of border studies and presents ways of discussing cultural representations of borders and related processes Influenced by the thinking of philosopher Jacques Rancière this timely volume argues that narrated and mediated images of borders and borderscapes are central to the political process as they contribute to the public negotiation of borders and address issues such as the invisibility of migrants and the formation of alternative borderscapes The contributions analyse narratives and images in literary texts political and popular imagery surveillance data border art and documentaries as well as problems related to borderland identities migration and trauma The case studies provide a highly comparative range of geographical contexts ranging from Northern Europe and Britain via Mediterranean and Mexican USA borderlands to Chinese borderlands from the perspectives of critical theory literary studies social anthropology media studies and political geography

Territorial Impact Assessment Eduardo Medeiros, 2020-11-19 This book presents a comprehensive debate and analysis of existing Territorial Impact Assessment TIA methodologies designed under the auspices of the ESPON programme since the mid 2000s This is intended to serve as a TIA handbook for the reader to better understand the main differences advantages and shortcomings of each presented TIA methodology It also serves as a manual for professors and students in the field of policy evaluation and territorial analysis as it presents concrete examples of the implementation of each TIA methodology their formulas and intrinsic evaluation elements The purpose of policy evaluation methodologies is to check the main effects of private and public investments in order to report back to policymakers and citizens on their efficiency and effectiveness Over the past decades both in Europe and worldwide there has been an increasingly awareness of the need to implement reinforce policy evaluation practices at all territorial levels At the same time it has become widely accepted that many policy interventions produce impacts in more than one dimensions of territorial development In this context the use of a holistic and territorial approach for policy impact assessment evaluation has rapidly been adopted by the European Commission as a mainstream policy evaluation procedure
