Delia Marie Franklin

Activity Calendar For Nursing Home:

Nursing Home Federal Requirements James E. Allen MSPH, PhD, CNHA, 2010-11-24 The book lists all the federal requirements that are evaluated by state surveyors during the annual survey visit to nursing homes and for complaint visits. The exhibit section contains forms used by surveyors to gather data during the survey visit. Visually the format makes the regulations easy to read. If nursing home staff used the book to prepare for a survey they would be well prepared. Marcia Flesner PhD RN MHCA University of Missouri Columbia From Doody's Review The Federal government together with more than 50 advocacy groups has spent the past 40 years writing and refining the rules and guidelines in this manual. This book presents the latest federal guidelines and protocols used by federal surveyors in certifying facilities for participation in Medicare and Medicaid funding. It is an essential resource for long term care facilities to have on hand to be ready for a survey at any time. It provides information straight from CMS's Internet Only Manual in print and at your fingertips for easy access. Divided into four accessible and user friendly parts this manual includes Federal requirements and interpretive guidelines, Rules for conducting the survey, Summary of the requirements for long term care facilities and surveyors, CMS forms commonly used by surveyors. This newly updated and revised edition spans every aspect and service of a nursing home and represents the latest requirements to ensure that outstanding quality assurance and risk management programs are in place. New to This Edition: Section on how to use manual, Summarization of federal requirements, Updated definitions of Medicare and Medicaid, Compliance requirements with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, SNF Hospice requirements when SNF serves hospice patients, SNF based home health agencies, Life safety code requirements, Changes in SNF provider status, Surveyor qualifications standards, Management of complaints and incidents, New medical director guidelines.

Television in the Nursing Home Wendy J Hajjar, 2013-04-03 Television in the Nursing Home: A Case Study of the Media Consumption Routines and Strategies of Nursing Home Residents is a three stage ethnographic study of media use by the elderly in long term care facilities. This research concludes that watching television is the most prevalent and pervasive activity for patients. Activity directors can now learn how television and media can offer diversion, enhancement of personality, awareness and sociability to their patients and offers suggestions on roommate coordination, selection of appropriate media and communication resources. Containing the latest knowledge involving communication and gerontology, Television in the Nursing Home will help you offer programs that will meet the demands of an expanding elderly population. Developed as a perspective for examining patterns of social interaction, Television in the Nursing Home gives suggestions on how you can use the media to create new activities for patients, maximizing the television as a resource for the elderly. You will gain valuable insight on proof to dispel the myth that television in long term patient care causes withdrawal and depression, a breakthrough in the treatment of media and aging, enhancing media based activities and the use and purchase of electronic equipment for care facilities, studies on how and why television is the most accessible medium of communication information.

for the development of new media designed specifically for use by the elderly creation of media centered activities that recognize the potential for therapeutic use of communication technologies in the nursing home The research presented in Television in the Nursing Home establishes the fact that television consumption once thought to be problematic should be seen as desirable and necessary This important book also proves how television is a resource that provides comfort self expression and sociality This first ever study will convince you that television and media use in long term care is beneficial and essential to the wellness of your patients Insider's Guide to Better Nursing Home Care Donna M. Reed, 2010-12

Based on her ten years of experience working as a Licensed Practical Nurse in many care facilities attorney Donna M Reed shares her insider knowledge to help ensure that nursing home residents receive the best care possible 2022
