Pacific Defence Reporter ,1988      Dragon in the Air: Transformation of China's Aviation Industry and Air Force ,2013-02-15 Dragon in the Air Transformation of China's Aviation Industry and Air Force is a comprehensive and multidimensional study of the air force and the emerging aviation industry in PRC The author has made a bold effort to trace the changing character of Chinese Air Force from the time of nationalists and perspicuously hunted down the history by dividing PLAAF into three distinct periods The first stage from 1949 1979 has been characterized by the early blues of PLAAF under Mao's leadership Deng then had an overbearing influence in the second stage from 1979 1993 also instrumental in initiating the process of transformation from an ancillary of PLA into an independent arm The third stage was however the defining moment which witnessed the start of modernization of PLAAF under the leadership of Jiang Zemin The author has very lucidly tried to explain the strong link between modernisation of PLAAF and the emergence of China's aviation industry and therefore divided the book in two parts While the first part of the book maintains focus on the air force and the process of modernisation the second part dwells with the evolution of the aviation industry and the changes in the organisation structure He has pointedly highlighted China's increasing defence spending and growing military capabilities resulting in China developing new aerial platforms ballistic missiles and modern firepower As a result China is enhancing strategic power projection by building capabilities to carry out air strikes reconnaissance and early warning and air and missile defence to put together a potent military force by the middle of this century      The Phoenix of Natural Disasters Kathryn Gow,Douglas Paton,2008 This book encompasses discussions between Kathryn Gow and Douglas Paton both psychologists who have researched stress burnout trauma and recovery in natural disasters They suggest that few books have been written for health professionals and persons directly involved with leading and managing emergency teams on what constitutes resilience in individuals and groups in communities and how they differ in response and recovery The outcome is a three part book with contributors from the field research institutions emergency service sectors support agencies and the media Its main purpose is to focus on the resilience of people and communities following NDs and to educate the sectors already involved in natural disasters      Defence Annual Report Australia.
