Administrative Law A Context And Practice Casebook:

Administrative Law Richard H. Seamon, 2013 To view or download the 2019 Supplement to this book click here This book helps students learn how to think and act like administrative lawyers The book's structure and contents reflect that most law school graduates do not become appellate judges rather most law school graduates have actual clients either clients with matters before administrative agencies or clients who are themselves administrative agencies on whose behalf they must identify the relevant law learn the applicable agency procedures and build a favorable record The book begins by introducing the components of administrative law Then it teaches students how to learn about an unfamiliar agency how to analyze and research various types of agency action e g agency rulemaking and adjudication and how to obtain review of agency actions at the administrative and judicial levels The book uses problems to provide a practitioner focused approach to the subject It also uses learning tools such as checklists and graphics Of course the book also includes excerpts of the major judicial opinions that make up the administrative law canon This book is part of the Context and Practice Series edited by Michael Hunter Schwartz Professor of Law and Dean of the McGeorge School of Law University of the Pacific PowerPoint slides featuring the diagrams figures and tables from this book are available for professors upon adoption Please contact bhall@capress.com for details
