Gay is Gay and Priesthood is Priesthood. Should Gay People be admitted to the Catholic Priesthood? Tarcisius Mukuka, 2021-02-19 Polemic Paper from the year 2021 in the subject Theology Historic Theology Ecclesiastical History grade 1 0 Kwame Nkrumah University language English abstract This article aims at examining the Catholic Church's indefensible and ambivalent position on homosexuality vis vis the Catholic priesthood I conclude that while its teaching is clear in my view erroneous its practice is ambivalent due to the many gay priests among its ranks even some would say up to the highest level of cardinals as the recent McCarrick Report 2020 by the Vatican Secretariat of State revealed On one level the answer to the question whether gay men and by extension gay women should be admitted to the Catholic priesthood or not is a straightforward affirmative They should This is probably a left of centre position It is my position Carlo Maria Vigan calls it an anti Church of heretics corrupt men and fornicators who include the Vatican Sanhedrin or what he calls the deep Church as I have mentioned below It would argue with evidence in bucket loads that there are already gay clerics both high and low in the Catholic priesthood but only men I hasten to add I know a handful In my erstwhile career as a Catholic seminary lecturer I personally knew a gay priest colleague an amiable fellow if ever there was one There was queer talk about him wherever he had been posted but nothing concrete until at his last post he was reported to the Zambian police for sexual abuse of two teenage boys May be if it had not been for the age of his victims he might still be in the gay closet *Directory, institutions for secondary and post-secondary professional training Unesco. Peace as Nonviolence Egon Spiegel, George Mutalemwa, Cheng Liu, Lester R. Kurtz, 2024-10-15 This book advances the peace discourse as defined in UN guidelines while also working towards the implementation of the science of peace in various educational contexts in Africa particularly at universities The contributions gathered here are intended to highlight the role of university peace studies programs particularly their relevance for peace education peace research and peace work The book is dedicated to students and teachers of Peace Studies and Development Studies at universities as well as civil society experts They bear a great responsibility with regard to shaping the Culture of Peace called for by the UN based on the foundation of peace education and peace work and in the context of an adequate peace policy The book seeks to strengthen African pillars of lasting peace through Peace Studies Analyzing the latest topics in Africa of universal importance it offers a valuable reference guide for researchers and professionals grappling with the realities of nonviolence and other essential topics in Peace Studies

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South Yonah Hisbon Matemba, Bruce A. Collet, 2022-02-10 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South presents new comparative perspectives on Religious Education RE across the Global South Including 23 chapters written by scholars from the Global North and South this is the first authoritative reference work on the subject The handbook is thematically organised into seven sections The first three sections deal with provision response to changes in contemporary society and decolonizing RE The next four sections explore young people and RE perspectives on teachers RE in higher education and finally challenges and opportunities for RE The term Global South is used here primarily to signify the deep economic divide with the Global North but the concept is also examined in historical geographical political social and cultural terms including the indelible influence of religion in all four broadly defined regions Exploring RE from local cross national as well as regional and sub regional perspectives the handbook examines RE from its diverse past present realities and envisioned future revealing not only tensions contestations injustices and inequalities of power but importantly how inclusive forms of RE can help solve these problems

Female Ordination in the Catholic Church. The Peeing while Standing Hypothesis
Tarcisius Mukuka, 2021-02-25 Academic Paper from the year 2021 in the subject Theology Historic Theology Ecclesiastical History grade 1 0 Kwame Nkrumah University language English abstract This article provides a theoretical and literature framework accompanying a currently ongoing six month post doctoral research project Female Catholic Ordination to the Diaconate Priesthood and Episcopate A Constructivist Epistemological Phenomenological Inquiry a post doctoral research project submitted to the Kwame Nkrumah University of Kabwe Zambia and the University of Pretoria in Pretoria South Africa Essentially the article debunks the argument of the Magisterium of the Catholic Church that the Church has no authority whatsoever to confer priestly ordination on women and that this judgment is to be definitively held by all the Church's faithful The argument goes something like this The priest presiding at Mass does so in persona Christi in the person of Christ therefore the priest must be male because Jesus was male at least for 30 plus of his life in first century Palestine The priest stands in for Jesus and therefore has to have a natural resemblance to the earthly Jesus and that resemblance is his maleness Just why this male resemblance is important is not set out in black and white Being human or Jesus post resurrection status in which gender or sex are irrelevant do not cut the ontological mustard
