Unrelenting Innovation Gerard J. Tellis, 2013-01-04 The hands on guide for fostering relentless innovation within your company Gerard Tellis a noted expert on innovation advertising and global markets makes the compelling case that the culture of a firm is the crucial driver of an organization s innovativeness In this groundbreaking book he describes the three traits and three practices necessary to create a culture of relentless innovation Organizations must be willing to cannibalize successful products embrace risk and focus on the future Organizations build these traits by providing incentives for enterprise empowering product champions and encouraging internal markets Spelling out the critical role of culture the author provides illustrative examples of organizations with winning cultures and explores the theory and evidence for each of the six components of culture The book concludes with a discussion of why culture is superior to alternate theories for fostering innovation Offers a groundbreaking take on innovation that is driven by a company s culture Shows what it takes to create a culture of innovation within any organization Based on a study of 770 companies across 15 countries the origin of 90 radical innovations spanning over 100 years and the evolution of 66 markets spanning over a 100 years Provides numerous mini cases to illustrate the workings of culture Written by Gerard Tellis director of the Center for Global Innovation This must have resource clearly shows the role of culture in driving relentless innovation and how to foster it within any organization

You Are What You Choose Scott de Marchi,James T. Hamilton,2009-11-12 The hidden patterns behind the way we make decisions Several recent books from Blink to Freakonomics to Predictably Irrational have examined how people make choices But none explain why different people have such different styles of decision making and why those styles seem consistent across many contexts For instance why is a gambler always a gambler whether at work on the highway or in a voting booth Scott de Marchi and James T Hamilton present a new theory about how we decide based on an extensive survey of more than thirty thousand subjects They show that each of us possesses six core traits that shape every decision from what to have for lunch to where to invest We go with the usual way of deciding whenever there s a trade off between current and future happiness when facing the risk of a bad outcome or when a choice might hurt other people We re also consistent about how much information we want and how much we care about the opinions of others Readers can determine their own decision making profile with a test in the book Once they understand the six core traits they ll have a big advantage in their marketing campaigns management strategies investments and many other contexts
