Brunelleschi's Dome Ross King, 2000 By all accounts Filippo Brunelleschi goldsmith and clockmaker was an unkempt cantankerous and suspicious man even by the generous standards according to which artists were judged in fifteenth century Florence He also designed and erected a dome over the cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore a feat of architectural daring that we continue to marvel at today thus securing himself a place among the most formidable geniuses of the Renaissance At first denounced as a madman Brunelleschi literally reinvented the field of architecture amid plagues wars and political feuds to raise seventy million pounds of metal wood and marble hundreds of feet in the air

Brunelleschi's Dome Ross King, 2008-08-12 Even in an age of skyscrapers and sports stadiums the cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore in Florence with its immense dome retains a rare power to astonish Yet for more than a century after work began on the cathedral in 1296 the proposed dome was regarded as impossible to build It became the greatest architectural puzzle of the age and when finally complete in 1436 was hailed as one of the wonders of the world Ross King tells the full story of how the cupola was raised from conception to consecration He also tells the story of the dome's architect the brilliant and volatile Filippo Brunelleschi His ambition ingenuity and rivalries are set in the context of the plagues wars and political feuds of Renaissance Florence It is a fascinating story
