A Torchlight For America:

A Torchlight for America Louis Farrakhan, 1993 Anvisninger af Minister Louis Farrakhan discipel af Elijah Muhammad p hvordan det amerikanske samfund b r indrettes og hvordan amerikanere b r leve iflg islam In the Name of Elijah Muhammad Mattias Gardell, 1996-09-26 In the Name of Elijah Muhammad tells the story of the Nation of Islam its rise in northern inner city ghettos during the Great Depression through its decline following the death of Elijah Muhammad in 1975 to its rejuvenation under the leadership of Louis Farrakhan Mattias Gardell sets this story within the context of African American social history the legacy of black nationalism and the long but hidden Islamic presence in North America He presents with insight and balance a detailed view of one of the most controversial yet least explored organizations in the United States and its current leader Beginning with Master Farad Muhammad believed to be God in Person Gardell examines the origins of the Nation His research on the period of Elijah Muhammad s long leadership draws on previously unreleased FBI files that reveal a clear picture of the bureau s attempts to neutralize the Nation of Islam In addition they shed new light on the circumstances surrounding the murder of Malcolm X With the main part of the book focused on the fortunes of the Nation after Elijah Muhammad s death Gardell then turns to the figure of Minister Farrakhan From his emergence as the dominant voice of the radical black Islamic community to his leadership of the Million Man March Farrakhan has often been portrayed as a demagogue bigot racist and anti Semite Gardell balances the media s view of the Nation and Farrakhan with the Nation s own views and with the perspectives of the black community in which the organization actively works His investigation based on field research taped lectures and interviews leads to the fullest account yet of the Nation of Islam s ideology and theology and its complicated relations with mainstream Islam the black church the Jewish community extremist white nationalists and the urban culture of black American youth particularly the hip hop movement and gangs Black Political Organizations in the Post-civil Rights Era Ollie A. Johnson, Karin L. Stanford, 2002 The first volume to investigate the accountability and relevance of African American political organizations since the end of the modern Civil Rights Movement in 1968 Educational Leadership and Louis Farrakhan Abul Pitre, 2017-02-08 Drawing from Louis Farrakhan s decades of teaching on education and leadership this volume brings his ideas into the educational leadership discourse It explores through a critical framework the purpose of education disclosing how those in powerful positions have shaped educational policy to use schools and universities for their benefit The book inspires educational leaders to serve the best interest of those under their leadership In a spiritual tone it discusses the purpose of education leadership as love servant leadership transformative leadership and futuristic leadership In the 21st century leadership for social justice has become a major theme and in this volume Louis Farrakhan s many years of working for equal justice on behalf of historically underserved groups is applied to the practice of educational leadership in K 12 and higher education The Black Muslims in America Charles Eric Lincoln, 1994 The updated edition about the important but little understood black Muslim movement Black Nationalism in American Politics and Thought Dean E. Robinson, 2001-09-03 Revisits the arguments supporting separate black statehood from the mid nineteenth century to the present The Life and Times of Elijah Muhammad Claude Andrew Clegg III, 2014-09-02 Elijah Muhammad 1897 1975 was one of the most significant and controversial black leaders of the twentieth century His followers called him the Messenger of Allah while his critics labeled him a teacher of hate Southern by birth Muhammad moved north eventually serving as the influential head of the Nation of Islam for over forty years Claude Clegg III not only chronicles Muhammad s life but also examines the history of American black nationalists and the relationship between Islam and the African American experience In this authoritative biography which also covers half a century of the evolution of the Nation of Islam Clegg charts Muhammad s early life his brush with Jim Crow in the South his rise to leadership of the Nation of Islam and his tumultuous relationship with Malcolm X Clegg is the first biographer to weave together speeches and published works by Muhammad as well as delving into declassified government documents insider accounts audio and video records and interviews producing the definitive account of an extraordinary man and his legacy New Perspectives on the Nation of Islam Dawn-Marie Gibson, Herbert Berg, 2017-02-17 New Perspectives on the Nation of Islam contributes to the ongoing dialogue about the nature and influence of the Nation of Islam NOI bringing fresh insights to areas that have previously been overlooked in the scholarship of Elijah Muhammad s NOI the Imam W D Mohammed community and Louis Farrakhan s Resurrected NOI Bringing together contributions that explore the formation practices and influence of the NOI this volume problematizes the history of the movement its theology and relationships with other religious movements Contributors offer a range of diverse perspectives making connections between the ideology of the NOI and gender dietary restrictions and foodways the internationalization of the movement and the civil rights movement This book provides a state of the art overview of current scholarship on the Nation of Islam and will be relevant to scholars of American religion and history Islamic studies and African American Studies N'Digo Legacy Black Luxe 110: Civil Rights Champions Edition Hermene Hartman, David Smallwood, 2017-12-12 Iconic Black Chicagoan profiles This volume is a book of comedians athletes and musicians of Chicago A must have for everyone who cherishes the history of Chicago within the African American community A contemporary history of over 30 years Educating African American Students Abul Pitre, Esrom Pitre, Ruth Ray, Twana Hilton-Pitre, 2009-08-15 Using a combination of case studies and research the contributors of this timely book highlight some of the significant issues historical curricular and societal that have led to African American students having a proportionally larger representation in special education classes higher drop out rates and more incidences of in school race on race violence The contributors draw from critical pedagogy multicultural education and the Afrocentric canon to critique the American educational system Educating African American Students examines historical issues that are significant for understanding the current state of affairs for African American education addresses problems and issues in social studies education mathematics education and the overrepresentation of African American males in special education and poignantly illuminates the necessity for renewed activism by telling the stories of African American children and their schooling experiences
