subject has been published since Sattler's 1935 handbook. With a selection of some 27 500 titles it covers the most important literature in all scientific fields relating to writing. Emphasis has been placed on the interdisciplinary organization of the bibliography creating many points of common interest for literacy experts, educationalists, psychologists, sociologists, linguists, cultural anthropologists and historians. The bibliography is organized in such a way as to provide the specialist as well as the researcher in neighboring disciplines with access to the relevant literature on writing in a given field. While necessarily selective it also offers information on more specialized bibliographies. In addition an overview of norms and standards concerning script and writing will prove very useful for non professional readers. It is therefore also of interest to the generally interested public as a reference work for the humanities.

We were proud to welcome participants from more than 40 countries from all over the world to this year's ICCHP. Since the late 1980s it has been ICCHP's mission to support and reflect development in the field of Assistive Technologies, eAccessibility and eInclusion. With a focus on scientific quality ICCHP has become an important reference in our field. The 2010 conference and this collection of papers once again fulfilled this mission. The International Programme Committee comprising 106 experts from all over the world selected 147 full and 44 short papers out of 328 abstracts submitted to ICCHP. This acceptance ratio of about half of the submissions demonstrates our strict pursuit of scientific quality both of the programme and in particular of the proceedings in your hands. An impressive number of experts agreed to organize Special Thematic Sessions (STS) for ICCHP 2010. These STS help to bring the meeting into sharper focus in several key areas. In turn this deeper level of focus helps to collate a state of the art and mainstream technical, social, cultural and political developments.
