A Surge Of Language Teaching Poetry Day By Day:

A Surge of Language Baron Wormser, David Cappella, 2004 Poetry is part of the 7-12 English curriculum but many students and teachers too are afraid of it. They think of poetry as esoteric, insular, even elitist. Baron Wormser and David Cappella prove otherwise. Poetry is in fact the lifeblood of language. It incorporates all aspects of the language arts. It deserves to be at the center of the English curriculum. And it can and should be taught daily. The authors show why and how. Their book takes the form of a fictional teacher's journal entries on his daily teaching of the reading and writing of poetry. His recurrent theme for appreciating poetry is to slow down, pay attention; there is much to be gained from this. And he demonstrates that truth. He looks at language closely: how the poet uses language, revises, edits, and assesses how potent language really is; how the fewest words can achieve the greatest impact. What's more, he highlights within the text major ideas for teaching and provides other teacher-friendly formats and information, including lists that detail practical exercises and strategies, full-length poems, anthologies for teacher reference. Plus the table of contents functions as a calendar of daily topics, making quick work of planning or honing in on areas of particular interest. A Surge of Language is the perfect antidote to pressure and stress. And it's a richer, more rewarding alternative to the lists of objectives that now comprise teaching. Both thoughtful and practical, it will inspire and guide teachers in their efforts to put some reflective practice back into their curriculums and classrooms. And it will get them to think in poetry too.

TEP Vol 26-N1 Teacher Education and Practice, 2013-03-05 Teacher Education and Practice, a peer-reviewed journal, is dedicated to the encouragement and the dissemination of research and scholarship related to professional education. The journal is concerned in the broadest sense with teacher preparation, practice, and policy issues related to the teaching profession as well as being concerned with learning in the school setting. The journal also serves as a forum for the exchange of diverse ideas and points of view within these purposes. As a forum, the journal offers a public space in which to critically examine current discourse and practice as well as engage in generative dialogue. Alternative forms of inquiry and representation are invited, and authors from a variety of backgrounds and diverse perspectives are encouraged to contribute. Teacher Education Practice is published by Rowman Littlefield.

Ezra's Book Justin Kishbaugh, Catherine E. Paul, 2019-06-21 On the afternoon of June 23, 2017, the attendees of the twenty-seventh biannual Ezra Pound International Conference held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA, gathered to listen to poets present original work influenced by the life and work of Ezra Pound. With a title playing on the small book of poems Pound produced for fellow poet Hilda Doolittle (H.D.), while the two were still young, this volume offers a selection of poems from that reading together with images evoking other conference events and the excursions to sites important to Pound: H.D., Marianne Moore, and William Carlos Williams. The Philadelphia Geniuses of the conference's theme. The poems and images herein help to keep the reading and the conference alive, present, and immediate for our readers. The collection includes poems by Charles Bernstein, Eloisa Bressan, Andrei Bronnikov, David Cappella, Silvia Falsaperla, J. Rhett Forman, John Gery, Jeff
