

Welcome to Rise, created by Barclays

Rise was established in 2014, by Barclays, to help FinTech startups succeed in disrupting the financial services space. Over the past four years, Rise has grown to be a launching pad for some of the most successful FinTech companies in the world.

For over 325 years, innovation has been part of Barclays' DNA. It has allowed us to co-create with our rich, diverse network of colleagues, partners, customers and clients around the world. This has led to a host of industry firsts, from installing the world's first ATM to generating the first-ever trade transaction using blockchain technology.

At Rise, we're continuing this long tradition by driving innovation within Barclays and shaping the future of financial services.
