Cost classification

- Variable Costs
 - Costs that varies in direct proportion to change in the level of activity, over a defined period of time. For example: Every meal sold has a variable component – the ingredients that goes into the meal.
- Fixed Costs
 - These costs do not change in the level of activity, over a defined period of time
- Mixed or semi-variable costs
 - These type of costs is partially fixed and partly varies with the change in the level of activity, over a defined period of time, and fixed component to them.
- Step cost
 - A fixed cost that increases in steps. The cost is fixed over a specific level of activity and from thereon it will increase.

ELLICKSON, Robert C Ellickson, 2009-06-30 In Order without Law Robert Ellickson shows that law is far less important than is generally thought He demonstrates that people largely govern themselves by means of informal rules social norms that develop without the aid of a state or other central coordinator Integrating the latest scholarship in law economics sociology game theory and anthropology Ellickson investigates the uncharted world within which order is successfully achieved without law The springboard for Ellickson's theory of norms is his close investigation of a variety of disputes arising from the damage created by escaped cattle in Shasta County California In The Problem of Social Cost the most frequently cited article on law economist Ronald H Coase depicts farmers and ranchers as bargaining in the shadow of the law while resolving cattle trespass disputes Ellickson's field study of this problem refutes many of the behavioral assumptions that underlie Coase's vision and will add realism to future efforts to apply economic analysis to law Drawing examples from a wide variety of social contexts including whaling grounds photocopying centers and landlord tenant relations Ellickson explores the interaction between informal and legal rules and the usual domains in which these competing systems are employed Order without Law firmly grounds its analysis in real world events while building a broad theory of how people cooperate to mutual advantage
