Between Conformity And Resistance Women Garment Workers In Bangladesh:

Between Conformity and Resistance Petra Dannecker, 2002 Everyday Life of Ready-made Garment Kormi in Bangladesh Mohammad Tareq Hasan, 2022-07-15 This book portrays the scene where corporate international trade agreements a new neoliberal state regime and a growing textile market have contributed to the becoming of a new class of Muslim female workers who labor in Bangladesh's apparel export factories under conditions of neoliberal capitalism The garment kormi often abstracted by the homogenizing category of the garment worker remain lost in the statistics of development and empowerment or contrarily exploitation Thereby focusing on the everyday lives of garment kormi i.e workers stories than on the collective of garment workers as a category this book at one front highlights the neoliberal structures of difference and inequality and on the other reflects on the potential of egalitarianism and change in terms of novel ways of comprising and expressing life worlds It shows that the values in life and the structures that govern life such as contemporary Bangladesh's neoliberal order kinship relationality and religiosity are co constitutive multi layered and always on the move never fixed Women and Domestic Violence in Bangladesh Laila Ashrafun, 2018-04-17 After the independence of Bangladesh in 1971 the country has experienced large scale transformations owing to national and international migration urbanization the development of many national and international non governmental organizations NGOs and economic dynamism Globalization and economic liberalization have created opportunities to develop sustainable social policies by strengthening the national economy of the country Major progress has been made in closing the gender gap and the Constitution of Bangladesh provides equality of status and opportunity to all its citizens irrespective of sex However domestic violence perpetuated against women is a common phenomenon in Bangladesh This book is a study about domestic violence against women in Bangladeshi society It delineates in particular why and how some women become the victims of domestic violence in the changing socio economic setting of Bangladesh The author explores the multiple contexts in which domestic violence occurs by focusing on the everyday experience of women subjected to this violence The book shows how changing socio economic setting urbanization and the growing demand for female labor influences the phenomenon and experience of domestic violence It demonstrates that domestic violence is entangled in a complex web of institutionalized social relations that necessitates a structural and contextual understanding of the production of such violence in family kinship and gender relations Finally it identifies factors that cause perpetuate and mitigate domestic violence or give strength to women to struggle and raise their voices or take shelter in the law against the perpetrators of domestic violence A novel contribution to our understanding of how gender relationships are differently constituted and contested in the everyday lives of Bangladeshi women both in natal and affinal families this book will be of interest to academics in the field of Sociology Gender and Law and South Asian Studies Revealing Gender Inequalities and Perceptions in South Asian Countries through Discourse Analysis Mahtab, Nazmunnessa, 2016-05-16 Misconceptions regarding gender identity and issues of inequality that women around the world face have become a predominant concern for not only the citizens impacted but global political leaders administrators and human rights activists Revealing Gender Inequalities and Perceptions in South Asian Countries through Discourse Analysis explores how an analysis of language use in the South Asian region exposes issues related to gender identity representation and equality Emphasizing emerging research and case studies focusing on the concept of gender in Malaysia Bangladesh and Nepal this publication is an essential resource for social theorists activists linguists media professionals researchers and graduate level students The Emergence of Bangladesh Habibul Khondker,Olav Muurlink,Asif Bin Ali,2022-02-22 The Emergence of Bangladesh analyses and celebrates the first 50 years of Bangladesh as a nation bringing insights from key scholars in Bangladeshi studies to an international audience as well as bringing home to a domestic audience the work of some of the nation s greatest intellectual exports the Bangladeshi scholars who have made a mark in their field of study in academia The book offers unique coverage of the battlegrounds on which the founding of the new nation was fought including language power and religion and provides unique insight into some of the hot spots that continue to shape the development of the nation the issues of gender culture ethnicity governance the economy and the army Those with an interest in understanding the past or present Bangladesh will find this a trove of frank and readable analysis Labor, Global Supply Chains, and the Garment Industry in South Asia Sanchita Saxena,2019-06-27 This book argues that larger flaws in the global supply chain must first be addressed to change the way business is conducted to prevent factory owners from taking deadly risks to meet clients demands in the garment industry in Bangladesh Using the 2013 Rana Plaza disaster as a departure point and to prevent such tragedies from occurring in the future this book presents an interdisciplinary analysis to address the disaster which resulted in a radical change in the functioning of the garment industry The chapters present innovative ways of thinking about solutions that go beyond third party monitoring They open up possibilities for a renewed engagement of international brands and buyers within the garment sector a focus on direct worker empowerment using technology the role of community based movements developing a model of change through enforceable contracts combined with workers movements and a more productive and influential role for both factory owners and the government This book makes key interventions and rethinks the approaches that have been taken until now and proposes suggestions for the way forward It engages with international brands the private sector and civil society to strategize about the future of the industry and for those who depend on it for their livelihood A much needed review and evaluation of the many initiatives that have been set up in Bangladesh in the wake of Rana Plaza this book is a valuable addition to academics in the fields of development studies gender and women s studies human rights poverty and practice political science economics sociology anthropology and South Asian studies Historical Dictionary of Bangladesh Syedur Rahman,2010-04-27 Bangladesh literally the land of the Bengalis is the most recent addition in 1971 to the independent nations of South Asia It had previously been known as East Pakistan and prior to that it was part of British India It has been inhabited by people of different races and religions and ruled over by different leaders who imposed different regimes It is overpopulated and underdeveloped but there is much more to it than that Bangladesh has a long and oftentimes proud tradition it has produced writers and artists of genius and it is an important outpost of Islam And with a population of some 130 million it is one of the larger countries in the world The fourth edition of the Historical Dictionary of Bangladesh greatly expands on the previous edition through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 700 cross referenced dictionary entries on important people places events and institutions as well as significant political economic social and cultural aspects

The Power to Choose Naila Kabeer,2020-05-05 In this path breaking study social economist Naila Kabeer examines the lives of Bangladeshi garment workers in Bangladesh and Britain to shed light on the question of what constitutes fair competition in international trade She argues that if the unhealthy coalition of multinationals and labor movements is truly seeking to improve the working conditions for women and children in the Third World as well as those of western workers their efforts should be directed away from an attempt to impose labor standards and towards a support for the organization of labor rights Any attempt to devise acceptable labor standards at an international level which takes no account of the forces of inclusion and exclusion with local labor movements is she further argues likely to represent the interests of the powerful at the expense of those of the weak

The Palgrave Handbook of Social Fieldwork Nasir Uddin,Alak Paul,2023-04-14 This handbook offers epistemologically and ontologically important personal accounts of academic and professional researchers having long term intensive comprehensive and ethnographic fieldwork in various social settings and versatile regional contexts across the globe The accounts are cross disciplinary including anthropology sociology geography political sciences gender studies forestry and environmental studies economics and international relations They are also trans regional covering the globe including South Asia Southeast Asia Africa Europe Latin America and North America The book offers a comprehensive portrait of multifaceted challenges that social researchers experience while doing fieldwork in various social settings The accounts provide both challenges of doing fieldwork in the 21st century and the ways how to address redress them in the field by complying with the codes of ethics and the politics of fieldwork Readers will benefit from the handbook by understanding methodological issues from both disciplinary relevance and regional specificity across time and spaces

Rights, Resources and the Politics of Accountability Peter Newell,Joanna Wheeler,2006-05 With examples drawn from a wide range of economic and industrial sectors and from both South and North this title presents a topical exploration of struggles for accountability in development projects
