Buildings Cities Life Eberhard Zeidler, 2013-08-26 Renowned architect Eberhard Zeidler tells his story in a two volume book that explores his early life in Germany and his years in Canada after he moved there in 1951 Architect of Toronto's Eaton Centre and Trump International Hotel and Tower Zeidler has left his stamp on the urban landscape of Canada the United States and the rest of the world Ron Thom, Architect Adele Weder, 2022-09-13 A definitive biography of an iconic Canadian architect and a social portrait of the midcentury design world he lived in Ron Thom came of age in the mid 20th century just as the modern movement and an impending building boom were about to reshape the country Talented in music and art as well as design he rejected sleek austerity in favor of modern architecture that is warm intimate and beautiful He worked from coast to coast and his most renowned buildings Massey College Trent University the Shaw Festival Theatre and landmark houses continue to inspire generations of architects as well as the legions of people who work study visit and live in them In Adele Weder's new biography Thom emerges as a complex figure gifted with creative genius but pursued by demons More than just the life story of one man this book is a portrait of the society that shaped him His world included Jack Shadbolt Arthur Erickson the Massey family Barbara and Murray Frum and many other luminaries of 20th century Canada To unpack this multifaceted story Weder pored through institutional and personal archives in Victoria Vancouver Calgary Montreal Peterborough and Toronto She tracked down and interviewed Thom's surviving friends colleagues and family members across the country from New Brunswick to Vancouver Island Her extensive research serves as the bedrock for Ron Thom Architect a book for anyone interested in a transformative era in Canada's cultural history University of Toronto: An Architectural Tour \(The Campus Guide\) 2nd Edition Larry Wayne Richards, 2019-04-02 University of Toronto The Campus Guide second edition portrays the dramatic growth and development of Canada's largest university while it showcases some of the finest architecture and landscapes in eleven curated walking tours Founded in 1850 and built in a pastoral setting outside the city limits the renowned university now has more than 90 000 students at three distinguished campuses the downtown Toronto St George campus the University of Toronto Mississauga and the University of Toronto Scarborough Extraordinary new photographs and beautifully illustrated maps bring to life the university's historical evolution from the nineteenth century to the present University of Toronto is the newest addition in the acclaimed Campus Guide series of leading colleges and universities in North America Unbuilt Hamilton Mark Osbaldeston, 2016-09-10 With 150 archival plans photographs and illustrations Mark Osbaldeston explores 200 years of significant but unrealized building planning and transit schemes in Hamilton Learn about the escarpment amphitheatre the Gage Avenue tunnel the King's Forest Zoo and the downtown planetarium none of which ever came to fruition The Heart of Toronto Daniel Ross, 2022-04-01 From the 1950s to the 1970s downtown North America was reconfigured for the suburban age Municipal officials planned renewal schemes merchant groups lobbied for street improvements developers built bigger and taller Everywhere attention turned to the problems and possibilities at the commercial and civic heart of cities The Heart of Toronto follows one such example of reinvention downtown Yonge Street Efforts to keep pace with or even lead urban change included the street's conversion into a car free public space a clean up campaign targeting the sex industry and the construction of North America's largest urban shopping mall These revitalization projects were all connected to wider trends of postwar decentralization economic restructuring and cultural transformation Interweaving histories of development civic activism and corporate clout The Heart of Toronto widens our understanding of the actors and power dynamics involved in remaking downtown in Canada's largest city a process that is far from over

Louisiana Buildings, 1720-1940 Jessie Poesch, Barbara SoRelle Bacot, 1997-08-01 The only New Deal program to continue into the 1990s the Historic American Buildings Survey has through the years drawn attention to the historical and artistic significance of buildings that contemporary taste might otherwise have ignored Louisiana Buildings 1720-1940 makes easily available the fruit of HABS's important and enduring efforts to record Louisiana's architectural heritage In the 1930s the Louisiana HABS team concentrated on public edifices and grand plantation complexes threatened by destruction Later records of HABS include still other habitations of the common man as well as industrial structures The project has yielded not only graphic and written documentation of the buildings many no longer standing but also new insights into the history of the state's architecture An invaluable part of Louisiana Buildings 1720-1940 is the alphabetical listing of HABS structures in Louisiana both by familiar name and by parish The listing by parish gives the location the date of construction the architect when known and the current status of each building It also presents drawings or photographs of many of the structures over 300 pictures in all There are besides nine chapters by leading architectural historians who cover all aspects of Louisiana architecture its Creole beginnings in the south of the state the Appalachian folk style in the north and developments on the plantation in the seventeenth century urban setting and in the modern era Those chapters form an essential frame of reference for the data in the HABS listings and call attention to many other structures that are a part of the history of building in the Pelican State Anyone interested in the state's architecture or history will find Louisiana Buildings indispensable

The Identity of the Architect Laura Iloniemi, 2019-12-23 Today there are more tools for communication than ever before yet very little in the way of reflection on how these are being used and even less on what exactly is being conveyed This issue of AD looks at how architecture is communicated from a cultural perspective Do the identities of practices or their business driven branding and promotional efforts resonate with the critical acclaim many architects seek Has slick image led media coverage sold the profession short How is it possible to convey the less visual and haptic qualities of architecture Can architects be more creative in their communication efforts making these joyous on their own terms as Le Corbusier did so memorably Is there really a need to succumb to the world of corporate marketing processes and managerial business jargon The issue explores notions of editing and curating work in an age of data deluge and discusses social media as a genuinely alternative space for communication rather than for just repurposing and
