My name is Grace Marks, and I am the daughter of John Marks, who lives in the Township of Toronto, he is a Quakerman by trade; we came to this country from the North of Ireland about thirty years ago; I have four sisters and five brothers, one sister and one brother are dead; I was 15 years old last July. I have lived across the water, but never been in Canada or various others...

The pale man was sitting above the green mountain.
The sun was shining towards the blue sea.
When I started with me here to the pale crystal mountain
That made to the beautiful Vale of Eborac.
The sun looked and sat in the crown of the mountain.
For long and far beyond above that man was;
Oh no, but the truth is that you were sleeping.
That made me see When the Moon of Eborac.

The critical analysis offered brings together a range of opinion on the text and offers a consistent reading. Includes Introduction. An outline of the historical context of the story; an annotated list of characters; analysis of genre, narrative voice, structure, themes, setting, symbols, etc. Each chapter section is accompanied by a helpful commentary and guiding questions which support readers toward a deeper understanding of the text through their own reflection and discussion. Ideas for group discussion, feedback, and presentation. Definitions of key literary terms and a literary terms activity. Two graphic organizers for study notes.
