Align Identity Guidebook Jen Smith:

Align Jen Smith, 2015-12-18 In the complexity and speed of modern life taking time to nurture oneself is often sacrificed to more immediate demands We struggle to understand our purpose and how we show up in the world We wonder what our lives are about and if we are making a difference These are big questions with no easy answers yet questions worth exploring In ALIGN author Jen Smith shows that the first step to creating a better life begins with understanding identity In this first book of the ALIGN ACT ACHIEVE series Smith explores the process of aligning which includes examining your values beliefs skills and talents those things that make your spirit soar and your energy surge Traveling inward ALIGN guides you through a series of stories questions insights and exercises to help you find your own answers to life's most important yet often ignored questions It marks the beginning of a journey of a lifetime

Act Jen Smith, 2015-12-30 When it comes to your life do you let the urgent take precedence over the important Do the days slip by with lots of activity and yet the big things those dreams you've carried for years lie dormant slipping further and further from reach Are you ready to be honest with yourself Are you ready to stake a claim and make a commitment Are you ready to manifest your thoughts as concrete action in the world Whatever it is that your heart desires are you ready to get started to close the gap between wishful thinking and deliberate action It's not the lack of time that's stopping you it's the lack of purpose and structure In ACT the second book in the ALIGN ACT ACHIEVE series author Jen Smith builds on the foundation laid in ALIGN to help you move into action She joins purpose with structure to provide a road map for a fun inspiring and intentional journey toward the future you want

Achieve Jen Smith, 2016-01-12 For those who have enjoyed their fair share of success life appears good Yet at times something seems to be missing leaving us to wonder Is there more In the final installment of her ALIGN ACT ACHIEVE series author Jen Smith explores this yearning for more and leads us beyond ourselves and into living in relationship and community Smith includes anecdotes that disclose her personal journey pause points for reflection space for journaling and a variety of reference materials that teach how to overcome fear manage time build authentic relationship ask the right questions practice gratitude and progress toward self transcendence ACHIEVE shares guidance and practical tools for anyone ready to summon the power within and move beyond self to find authentic relationship community and purpose How much are you willing to risk to be yourself

Place-Making in the Declarative City Beatrix Busse, Ingo H. Warnke, Jennifer Smith, 2020-06-08 This volume looks at the concept of the declarative city from an interdisciplinary perspective comprising literary and linguistic studies arts and art history discourse analysis as well as urban planning The various contributions demonstrate the semiotic complexity and inconsistency of declarative and discursive practices in different social cultural aesthetic and historical contexts

Bodies Unbound Piper Sledge, 2021-03-12 Bodies Unbound is a comparative study showing how ideologies of gendered bodies shape medical care and the ways in which patients respond to these ideologies through decisions about their bodies using three cases transgender men seeking preventative gynecological care cisgender men diagnosed with breast cancer and cisgender women with breast cancer who elect to undergo prophylactic mastectomies Bodies Unbound is a story about how the relationship between bodies and gender becomes socially intelligible as well as how medical professionals use their position of relative authority over bodies to dictate which combinations of bodies and genders are legitimate or not Drawing on the experiences of individuals whose bodies and gender identities don't match medical and social expectations for gynecological and breast cancer care Sledge unravels the taken-for-granted alignment of bodies and gender that provide the foundation of medical care in the United States

Politics and Pitfalls of Japan Ethnography Jennifer Robertson, 2013-10-18 Four anthropologists Elise Edwards Ann Elise Lewallen Bridget Love and Tomomi Yamaguchi draw on their fieldwork experiences in Japan to demonstrate collectively the inadequacy of both the Code of Ethics developed by the American Anthropological Association AAA and the dictates of Institutional Review Boards IRB when dealing with messy human realities The four candidly and critically explore the existential dilemmas they were forced to confront with respect to this inadequacy for the AAA's code and IRBs consider neither the vulnerability and powerlessness of ethnographers nor the wholly unethical and even criminal deportment of some informants As Jennifer Robertson points out in her Introduction whereas the AAA's Code tends to perpetuate the stereotype of more advantaged fieldworkers studying less advantaged peoples IRBs appear to protect their home institutions from possible litigation rather than living and breathing people whose lives are often ethically compromised irrespective of the presence of an ethnographer In her commentary Sabine Fr hst ck who incurred ample experience with ethical dilemmas in the course of her pathbreaking ethnographic research on Japan's Self Defense Forces situates the four articles in a broader theoretical context and emphasizes the link between political engagement and ethnographic accuracy This book was previously published as a special issue of Critical Asian Studies

Museums in the New Mediascape Jenny Kidd, 2016-04-22 The museum today faces complex questions of definition representation ethics aspiration and economic survival Alongside this we see burgeoning use of an array of new media including increasingly dynamic web portals and content digital archives social networks blogs and online games At the heart of this are changes to the idea of visitor and audience and their participation and representation in the new cultural sphere This insightful book unpacks a number of contradictions that help to frame and articulate digital media work in the museum and questions what constitutes authentic participation Based on original empirical research and a range of case studies the author explores questions about the museum as media from a number of different disciplines and shows that across museums and the study of them the cultural logic is changing

Workers' Rights and Labor Compliance in Global Supply Chains Jennifer Bair, Doug Miller, Marsha Dickson, 2013-11-26 This book provides insight into the potential for the market to protect and improve labour standards and working conditions in global apparel supply chains It examines the possibilities and limitations of market approaches to securing social compliance in global manufacturing industries It does so by tracing the historic origins of social labelling both in trade union and consumer constituencies considering industry and consumer perspectives on the benefits and drawbacks of social labelling comparing efforts to develop and implement labelling initiatives in various countries and locating social labelling within contemporary debates and controversies about the implications of globalization for workers worldwide Scholars and students of globalisation development corporate social responsibility human geography labour and industrial relations business ethics consumer behaviour and fashion will find its contents of relevance CSR practitioners in the clothing and other industries will also find this useful in developing policy with respect to supply chain assurance information organizations Mammography Wars Asia Friedman, 2023-06-16 Winner of the 2024 Outstanding Book Award Social Problems Theory Division Society for the Study of Social Problems Mammography is a routine health screening performed forty million times each year in the United States yet it remains one of the most deeply contested topics in medicine with national health care organizations supporting conflicting guidelines In Mammography Wars sociologist Asia Friedman examines cultural and medical disagreements over mammography At issue is whether to screen women under age fifty which is rooted in deeper questions about early detection and the assumed linear and progressive development of breast cancer Based on interviews with doctors and scientists interviews with women ages 40 to 50 and newspaper coverage of mammography Friedman uses the sociology of attention to map the cognitive structure of the mammography wars offering insights into the entrenched nature of debates over mammography that often get missed when applying a medical lens Friedman s analysis also suggests the sociology of attention s unique potential for analyzing cultural conflicts beyond mammography and even beyond medicine
