All Things Conceived Philosophical Discourse:

Presocratic Reflexivity: The Construction of Philosophical Discourse c. 600-450 B.C. Barry Sandywell, 2002-11-01

In this third Volume of Logological Investigations Sandywell continues his sociological reconstruction of the origins of reflexive thought and discourse with special reference to pre Socratic philosophy and science and their socio political context

The Intelligible World Wilbur Marshall Urban, 2014-06-03 First published in 2002 This is Volume XIV of seventeen in the Library of Philosophy series on Metaphysics Written in 1929 this book is on metaphysics and value in the intelligible world which states that there are only two kinds of philosophies those that find the world ultimately meaningful and intelligible and those that do not The present book claims to belong to the first of these and as such to be apart however modest of the Great Tradition in philosophy Nietzsche, Heidegger, and Daoist Thought Katrin Froese, 2012-02-01 In this book Katrin Froese juxtaposes the Daoist texts of Laozi and Zhuangzi with the thought of Nietzsche and Heidegger to argue that there is a need for rethinking the idea of a cosmological whole By moving away from the quest for certainty Froese suggests a way of philosophizing that does not seek to capture the whole but rather becomes a means of affirming a connection to it one that celebrates difference rather than eradicating it Human beings have a vague awareness of the infinite but they are nevertheless finite beings Froese maintains that rather than bemoaning the murkiness of knowledge the thinkers considered here celebrate the creativity and tendency to wander through that space of not knowing or in between ness However for Nietzsche and the early Heidegger this in between ness can often produce a sense of meaninglessness that sends individuals on a frenetic quest to mark out space that is uniquely their own Laozi and Zhuangzi on the other hand paint a portrait of the self that provides openings for others rather than deliberately forging an identity that it can claim as its own In this way human beings can become joyful wanderers that revel in the movements of the Dao and are comfortable with their own finitude Froese also suggests that Nietzsche and Heidegger are philosophers at a crossroads for they both exemplify the modern emphasis on self creation and at the same time share the Daoist insight into the perils of excessive egoism that can lead to misguided attempts to master the world Cultural Beings Yuval Lurie, 2021-12-28 Human beings are a cultural species This predicament enables them to take on many different cultural identities all of which transcend the bounds of natural behavior of other species To contemplate this predicament through philosophy is to reflect on such questions as What makes cultural forms of life possible What is encompassed in them What lies at their core What distinguishes them from natural forms of life What brings them about sustains and causes them to change Philosophical answers to these questions predate abstract ways of thinking as they are sometimes embedded in ancient mythical and religious narratives Such is the story told in the first three chapters of the book of Genesis in the Bible revealing how human beings became the cultural beings that they are This study suggests how that ancient and most celebrated story in the literature of the West may be read as harboring insightful philosophical observations on the cultural nature of human beings

It first focuses on the very concept of cultural forms of life revealing its complicated conceptual links to natural forms of life. It then offers an interpretive framework for reading mythical symbolic narratives. Using these ideas it provides a philosophical reading of the Biblical narrative disclosing it to harbor a metaphysically oriented conception of nature and two insightful philosophical overviews of the cultural nature of human beings. Both overviews endow human beings with an ability to manipulate nature but in different ways: the first by subjugating parcels of nature to human will; the second by subjugating human beings themselves to a value laden conception of things and ethical forms of life. Thus human beings are portrayed as natural creatures possessed of a cultural nature that enables them to transform nature and recreate themselves through their unique cultural predicament.

The Discourses of Epictetus Epictetus, 1890 Philosophy Nathan Rotenstreich, 2012-12-06 The present book is concerned with the nature of philosophy and with the scope of philosophical interest. It combines an analysis of the major types of philosophical thinking as they emerged in the history of philosophical ideas with an attempt to examine problems which recurrently emerge in philosophical discourse. It is from this point of view that the historical and the systematic approaches are meant to be mutually reinforcing. I am grateful to my friends who helped me to formulate the line of thinking expressed in this book: Z. Bar-On, A. Margalit, E. I. I. Poznanski, Z. Werblowsky and E. Zemach. Some years ago when I visited the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions in Santa Barbara, Dr. Robert M. Hutchins encouraged me to write the present book. I am dedicating the book to him not only because of that encouragement but more importantly because as an educational thinker Dr. Hutchins represents the position which assigns to the great ideas of the past validity and value in the analysis of topical problems of the present.

The Relevance of Hegel's Concept of Philosophy Luca Illetterati, Giovanna Miolli, 2021-12-16 In a systematic treatment of Hegel's concept of philosophy and all of the different aspects related to it, this collection explores how Hegel and his understanding of his discipline can be put into dialogue with current metaphilosophical inquiries and shed light on the philosophical examination of the nature of philosophy itself. Taking into account specific aspects of Hegel's elaboration on philosophy such as the scientificity of philosophy as a self-grounding rational process and his explanation of the relationship between philosophy and the history of philosophy, an international line-up of contributors considers Hegel's concept of philosophy in general from skepticism, idealism, history and difference to time, politics and religion. The relation of Hegel's concept of philosophy to other philosophical traditions and philosophers including Kant, Fichte, Schelling and Jacobi; Hegel's concept of philosophy with reference to philosophy's relation to other forms of rationality and disciplines; The relation of Hegel's concept of philosophy to specific issues in present metaphilosophical debates. Reflecting the renewed and widespread interest in Hegel seen in Analytic philosophy and Continental thought, this volume advances study of Hegel's conceptual tools and provides new readings of traditional philosophical problems.

Cosmo-nationalism Oisín Keohane, 2018-01-09 Why do we assign nationalities to philosophies? Building on Jacques Derrida's unpublished seminars on philosophical nationalism, Oisín Keohane claims that national philosophies are a variant of some form of cosmo nationalism a strain of nationalism that uses rather than opposes ideas in cosmopolitanism to advance the aims of one nation Zhuangzi (Longman Library of Primary Sources in Philosophy)

Chuang Tzu, 2016-09-16 Part of the Longman Library of Primary Sources in Philosophy this translation edition of Chuang Tzu's works is framed by a pedagogical structure designed to make this important work of philosophy more accessible and productive for undergraduates John Locke and the Uncivilized Society Scott Robinson, 2021-04-19 John Locke's influence on American political culture has been largely misunderstood by his commentators Though often regarded as the architect of a rationally ordered and civilized liberalism John Locke and the Uncivilized Society demonstrates that Locke's thought is culpable for the rather uncivilized expressions of political engagement seen recently in America By relying upon Eric Voegelin's concept of pneumopathology Locke is shown to be subtly constructing a liberal ideology and thereby individuals who approach liberalism as closed minded ideologues not as deeply responsible and mature citizens Because Locke's citizens will be slogan chanters instead of deep thinkers Locke's work does not create a liberalism that provides the best possible regime for humans but a mere shadow of the best possible regime
