All Aboard! Monica Kulling, 2011-11-16 In the second of Tundra's Great Idea series biographies for children who are just starting to read Monica Kulling presents the life of an extraordinary man There were few opportunities for the son of slaves but Elijah McCoy's dreams led him to study mechanical engineering in Scotland He learned everything there was to know about engines how to design them and how to build them But when he returned to the United States to look for work at the Michigan Central Railroad the only job Elijah could get was shoveling coal into a train's firebox Undaunted he went on to invent a means of oiling the engine while the train was running changing the face of travel around the world With playful text and lively illustrations All Aboard Elijah McCoy's Steam Engine may be the first biography a child discovers and it will whet the appetite for many more

Making Contact! Monica Kulling, 2013-08-06 The fifth book in Tundra's Great Idea Series Making Contact tells the story of Guglielmo Marconi who became the father of wireless communication As a boy Marconi loved science and invention Born in 1874 in Bologna Italy to a wealthy family Marconi grew up surrounded by books in his father's library He was fascinated with radio waves and learned Morse code the language of the telegraph A retired telegraph operator taught him how to tap messages on the telegraph machine At the age of twenty Marconi realized that no one had invented a wireless telegraph Determined to find a way to use radio waves to send wireless messages Marconi found his calling And thanks to his persistence on December 12 1901 for the first time ever a wireless signal traveled between two continents The rest is history Monica Kulling's playful informative text combined with the compelling illustrations of artist Richard Rudnicki bring an amazing inventor and his times to life
