We God's People Jocelyne Cesari, 2021-12-16 Cesari argues that both religious and national communities are defined by the three Bs belief behaviour and belonging By focusing on the ways in which these three Bs intersect overlap or clash she identifies the patterns of the politicization of religion and vice versa in any given context Her approach has four advantages firstly it combines an exploration of institutional and ideational changes across time which are usually separated by disciplinary boundaries Secondly it illustrates the heuristic value of combining qualitative and quantitative methods by statistically testing the validity of the patterns identified in the qualitative historical phase of the research Thirdly it avoids reducing religion to beliefs by investigating the significance of the institution ideas connections and fourthly it broadens the political approach beyond state religion relations to take into account actions and ideas conveyed in other arenas such as education welfare and culture
