Judgement and Sense in Modern French Philosophy Henry Somers-Hall,2022-06-23 Develops new readings of key figures in the French tradition that together constitute a new reading of the tradition itself Hegel's Conscience Dean Moyar,2011-04-06 This book provides a new interpretation of the ethical theory of G W F Hegel The aim is not only to give a new interpretation for specialists in German Idealism but also to provide an analysis that makes Hegel s ethics accessible for all scholars working in ethical and political philosophy The German Stranger William H. F. Altman,2012-06-07 Leo Strauss s connection with Martin Heidegger and Carl Schmitt suggests a troubling proximity to National Socialism but a serious critique of Strauss must begin with F H Jacobi While writing his dissertation on this apparently Christian opponent of the Enlightenment Strauss discovered the tactical principles that would characterize his lifework writing between the lines a faith based critique of rationalism the deliberate secularization of religious language for irreligious purposes and an all or nothing antagonism to middling solutions Especially the latter is distinctive of his Zionist writings in the 1920s where Strauss engaged in an ongoing polemic against Cultural Zionism attacking it first from an orthodox and then from an atheist s perspective In his last Zionist article 1929 Strauss mentions the Machiavellian Zionism of a Nordau that would not fear to use the traditional hope for a Messiah as dynamite By the time of his change of orientation National Socialism was being led by a nihilistic Messiah while Strauss had already radicalized Schmitt s political theology and Heidegger s deconstruction of the ontological Tradition Central to Strauss s advance beyond the smartest Nazis is his Second Cave in which he claimed modern thought is imprisoned only by escaping Revelation can we recover natural ignorance By using pseudo Platonic imagery to illustrate what anti Semites called Jewification Strauss attempted to annihilate the common ground celebrated by Hermann Cohen between Judaism and Platonism Unlike those who attacked Plato for devaluing nature at the expense of the transcendent Idea the migr Strauss effectively employed a new Plato who was no more a Platonist than Nietzsche or Heidegger had been Central to Strauss s Platonic political philosophy is the mysterious protagonist of Plato s Laws whom Strauss accurately recognized as the kind of Socrates whose fear of death would have caused him to flee the hemlock Any reader who recognizes the unbridgeable gap between the real Socrates and Plato s Athenian Stranger will understand why the German Stranger is the principal theoretician of an atheistic re enactment of religion of which genus National Socialism is an ultra modern species Finishing in Architecture Paul Emmons,Marcia Feuerstein,Negar Goljan,2025-06-30 Finishing in Architecture Polishing Completing Ending explores the topic of finishing and the fascinating physical and metaphysical implications of its various conceptions in architecture Finishing is essential to all human practices and concepts of time yet simultaneously it is largely impossible to identify an entirely finished state of being As mortals we organize our worlds into beginnings and endings starts and finishes Architecture s temporality however may contain something of both the mortal and immortal within it a desire for permanence combined with lamentation over its impossibility While many approaches to finishing construct two opposed ontological conditions the finished and the unfinished this dualistic ploy neglects the complexity of architectural practice cultural reception and historiographic shifts in semiotics during the lifetime of a building More nuanced approaches are examined in this collection of 38 essays and creative works from a diverse group of scholars architects and artists who conceptualize finishing not simply as a final outcome but as an extended action a mood that presumes an end is near all the while working continuously toward but never achieving completion It is here that the concept of finishing is not a state of being but a state of becoming as an active thickening of time when the end is thought to be imminent but not yet attained Finishing more than a final endpoint is a void state that is extended through efforts framing its territory while never quite containing it From the material to the procedural and the conceptual this volume explores the practices of finishing in architecture within three currents surfaces projects and most broadly architectural times It will be of interest to students and instructors of architecture and design architectural historians and other scholars The
