Home Together Thomas Bergen,2020-08-13 Emerging adults today feel homeless and alone How can the church share the good news of a God who offers home and togetherness Home Together gives a compelling account of a Christian student residence that has shared this good news by engaging emerging adults in a community of discipleship and belonging For over thirty years the Menno Simons Centre in Vancouver British Columbia has supported university students and helped them to grow together in their faith Using the metaphor of home to describe this community Thomas Bergen outlines a practical theology of ministry among emerging adults as a shared home construction project He explores six aspects of the Menno Simons Centre as home spiritual supportive sabbatical safe spurring and sending combining theological reflection cultural analysis personal testimonies and practical wisdom Set against the backdrop of postmodern challenges Home Together offers an inspiring model of ministry among university students that might well be adapted for other contexts

Early Ecotheology and Joseph Sittler Panu Pihkala,2017 When did Christians begin to address environmental questions What can be learned from these pioneering thinkers This study reveals that between 1910 and 1954 many theologians called for responsibility towards nature The focal point is the work of Joseph Sittler 1904 1987 an American Lutheran and ecumenical theologian The role of these early ecotheologians is discussed in relation to environmental history and education The findings show that ecotheology was not as strongly separated from other environmentalism as it was after the 1960s Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 12 Subject Religious Studies Environmental Studies Ecotheology Joseph Sittler Partnership as Mission Kenneth Gray, Maylanne Maybee, 2023-11-10 This uniquely Canadian volume tells stories of Ellie Johnson missiologist and director of Partnerships at the Anglican Church of Canada from 1994 to 2008 More than that this book tells of God s mission and how the Anglican Church of Canada participated in that mission with our ecumenical partners Since the Anglican Congress of 1963 through the years of the ecumenical justice coalitions of the 1970s and 1980s through the drastic organizational restructuring of General Synod in the first decade of the 2000s change in the church has been continuous and relentless Ellie s skill in managing this change remains inspirational today In standing with residential school survivors identifying systemic racism seeking peace and ecojustice and contributing to global conversations about mission priorities and practices Ellie shared her experience and insight widely and effectively Through personal memories and tributes through detailed historical storytelling friends family and colleagues describe their own rich experience working with Ellie Others raise questions about the face and context of mission today recalling Ellie s favorite dictum all mission is local The collection concludes with some of Ellie s own unpublished words There is so much to appreciate about this deeply spiritual person whose legacy lives on as we draw on her legacy to find resilience and strength for today s demanding ecojustice journey
