idea journal: co-constructing body-environment Julieanna Preston, 2020-12-09 This special guest edited issue extends the current discussions of art inclusive of interior spatial design and architecture as a process of social cognition and to address the gap between descriptions of embodied cognition and the co construction of lived experience Papers and exhibitions presented at the 2019 Bodies of Knowledge Conference have been advanced significantly as research articles and visual essays to focus on interdisciplinary connections across research practices that involve art and theories of cognition These contributions emphasise how spatial art and design research approaches have enabled the articulation of a complex understanding of environments spaces and experiences including the spatial distribution of cultural organizational and conceptual structures and relationships as well as surrounding design features Contributions address the following questions How do art and spatial practices increase the potential for knowledge transfer and celebrate diverse forms of embodied expertise How the examination of cultures of practice Indigenous knowledges and cultural practices offer perspectives on inclusion diversity neurodiversity disability and social justice issues How the art and spatial practices may contribute to research perspectives from contemporary cognitive neuroscience and the philosophy of mind The dynamic between an organism and its surroundings for example How does art and design shift the way knowledge and thinking processes are acquired extended and distributed How do art and design practices demonstrate the ways different forms of acquiring and producing knowledge intersect

A Body of Fates Kenneth Evren, 2023-09-20 On December 31st 1999 history changed Precisely at midnight David Becker was born into abuse and left home young Rescued by Deborah Glasscock a natural born leader from three generations of extraordinary women they married in 1998 With the first tick of Saturday January 1st 2000 the course of their lives was forever altered and time travelling consequences began to manifest The peculiar lives of their predecessors the epigenetics of a war torn alcohol soaked ancestry and entangled events from previous life changing Saturdays somehow connect through cause and effect to an ominous diagnosis hanging over their now young family Rational explanations fail leading Dave into the mirrored funhouse of consciousness beliefs and free will Fearing an inescapable destiny as his family is daily ravaged Dave encounters his own personal Fate a being he becomes convinced is real She torments his dreams whispering malign revelations It s all beyond your control Your family s survival depends on your choices and the future hidden within them You are no more than a self aware bag of meat Perhaps you re hearing voices David Witty quirky surreal and tender Evren retells the Greek myth of the Fates as an if only story of regret and redemption sex and power the old animus of science and religion the endurance of suffering and the resilience of family

Strong, Beautiful and Modern Charlotte Macdonald, 2013 In the late 1930s and early 1940s a wave of state sponsored national fitness programs swept Britain and its former settler colonies laying the foundations for the twentieth century s obsession with fitness In Strong Beautiful and Modern Charlotte Macdonald shows how governments encouraged citizens to be healthier and more active and thereby reinforced the cultural ties of the Empire. Alongside these state sponsored efforts was a growing emphasis from business, the medical establishment and popular culture on the importance of having a better body. At a time when government concern over public health issues such as obesity is once again on the rise, MacDonald offers valuable lessons as to why the first national fitness drive was ultimately a failure. Drawing on extensive research, Strong Beautiful and Modern is a lively investigation into the way people and their governments think about health and well being and how historical views have shaped our modern life.

Build Your House Around My Body Violet Kupersmith, 2021-07-06 Part puzzle part revenge tale part ghost story this ingenious novel spins half a century of Vietnamese history and folklore into a thrilling read acrobatic and filled with verve. The New York Times Editors Choice FINALIST FOR THE CENTER FOR FICTION'S FIRST NOVEL PRIZE LONGLISTED FOR THE WOMEN'S PRIZE FOR FICTION ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR. The New York Times Book Review NPR Good Housekeeping Kirkus Reviews Fiction as daring and accomplished as Violet Kupersmith's first novel reignites my love of the form and its kaleidoscopic possibilities. David Mitchell author of Cloud Atlas Two young women go missing decades apart Both are fearless both are lost And both will have their revenge 1986 The teenage daughter of a wealthy Vietnamese family loses her way in an abandoned rubber plantation while fleeing her angry father and is forever changed 2011 A young unhappy Vietnamese American woman disappears from her new home in Saigon without a trace The fates of these two women are inescapably linked bound together by past generations by ghosts and ancestors by the history of possessed bodies and possessed lands. Alongside them we meet a young boy who is sent to a boarding school for the misbehaving children of French expatriates just before Vietnam declares its independence from colonial rule two Frenchmen who are trying to start a business with the Vietnam War on the horizon and the employees of the Saigon Spirit Eradication Co who find themselves investigating strange occurrences in a farmhouse on the edge of a forest. Each new character and timeline brings us one step closer to understanding what binds them all. Build Your House Around My Body takes us from colonial mansions to ramshackle zoos from sweaty nightclubs to the jostling seats of motorbikes from expat flats to sizzling back alley street carts. Spanning more than fifty years of Vietnamese history and barreling toward an unforgettable conclusion this is a time traveling heart pounding border crossing fever dream of a novel that will haunt you long after the last page.
